

"The promotion of Yachting—The Improvement of Buckeye Lake for boating purposes."

CAPTAIN JONAH

There's propellers on his fingers, rudders on his toes,
 He swims just like a swordfish, has searchlights on his nose,
 So come to the social, get under way,
 See Mister Captain Jonah Jij-ji-boo J.
 He dresses up in seaweed clothes, don't have much to say,
 And eats just like a seahorse, corned-beef, clams or hay,
 Drinks on y gasoline, stows it all day,
 Come see old Captain Jonah Jij-ji-boo J.

(Apologies to the lady with rings on her fingers)

We take pleasure in announcing the

5th Tar Social

Buckeye Lake Yacht Club

Monday Evening, February 21, 1910, 6.45 P. M. Sharp

In United Commercial Travelers Building, 24 W. Goodale Street,
 Columbus, Ohio

IN behalf of the Club Membership we cordially invite you and your friends to attend this mid-winter regatta, to eat hard tack, hear "old" salts from the big waters spin "new" yarns, to sing in congregational style with the Marine Choir and generally to enjoy yourself for an evening on the main deck, in real sea going style in the briny atmosphere of Happy Harbor

THE COMMITTEE

Geo. F. Mooney, Chairman
