Notes From The Commodore

Sunday, November 21, was Trophy Day and it was well attended. We are pleased that the trophies were spread out more this year, particularly in the Highlander Fleet, where there were many new hardware winners. On the picture page you will see fleet champions Dave Reynolds (Highlanders); P/C George Fisher (Lightnings); and R/C Russ Luchtenberg (Ravens) and their crews, receiving their just rewards. I would like to congratulate not only the winners, but all who participated in the sailing season, including the unsung heroes -- the crew members -- who are most faithful week after week and carry the major share of the work load. Sailing is at the very heart of our club activity and even though the number and variety of our activities in the club are increasing greatly, I hope that every season will see increased interest in sailing.

On December 4 Gov. Walker and his entertainment committee had a hillbilly band for one of a number of informal Saturday evenings. The entertainment each time will be varied and we shall hope to turn out again good crowds for these Saturday night informals.

Please remember the NEW YEAR'S EVE DANCE on Friday, December 31. This is always a wonderful occasion and we hope that all members will turn out. The Board of Governors is requested to wear tuxedos and dress is optional for others. We hope some of the past commodores will "tux" it up for the evening also.

Tim Fisher and Karen Daylin were married in St. Albans Episcopal Church in Bexley on Tuesday, the 21st, at 4:30. Karen is the daughter of Major General Daylin, U.S. Army, Chief of Staff of the Southern NATO Command, headquartered in Naples, Italy. Tim met Karen while attending the World Lightning Races last September in Naples and fortunately, was unable to shake the fever. We are always glad to see our bachelor members surrender to the fine group of young married couples we have in the Club. Skip Irwin and Boyd Bowden are highly eligible and we shall hope the bug bites them soon. Of course, we have given up on P/C Pete Burns. Apparently, no woman will accept him as husband material. We hope that Karen will enjoy the Club, and we hope to see them both around the Club frequently.

I would like to express my thanks to P/C Earl Williams for the splendid job of picture taking for the Board of Governors. We have individual portraits, as well as a group picture, and these are done in the highly expert manner which you are accustomed to expect from Howard Studios.

See you Friday night at the NEW YEAR'S PARTY.

BLYC Ladies Auxiliary News - Joann Downey

Everyone enjoyed the lovely cocktail party at Dorothy Meachams preceding the December meeting. The champagne punch and hors d'oeuvres were delicious and all the Christmas decorations really started everyone to the meeting all set in a festive mood.

Marge Cox and her committee had the country club looking very lovely and the Christmas party was well attended (53) and was enjoyed and appreciated by all the ladies present. Marge wants to thank her committee for such excellent work. They were: Helen Dressel, Mary Jane Offenberger, Sue Metzger and Gen Lambrecht. Thanks girls.

Ella Woolley was the lucky winner of the Christmas centerpiece, which was donated by Jane Keck.

The Auxiliary again wants to thank Jane Langley for all her efforts and time spent in bringing to the Aux. many, many Christmas decorations.

Lillian Ross is on her way to New Orleans. She said she will miss all the ladies a great deal; we will miss her too. Her address will be 617 Vollette St., New Orleans.

There are still a few serving dishes and trays from the Snowball Regatta at the Club. They are in the old Governor's room. We did come up one dish missing -- if anyone accidentally got a white deviled egg dish mixed in with their own, will you please contact Jane Langley. The dish belongs to her mother; it was a gift.

By the way, who in the Ladies Aux. was seen "trying" to go in to the men's rest room at Lazarus????????

The Wednesday card players had their Christmas party at the Yacht Club. We had the husbands, and even got them into the "Horse Thief" games. There was a gift exchange, cocktails, and even some charades.

We could not get the captions under the pictures this month, but on the trophy presentation page attached you will see at the upper left Kay Poston and P/C Earl Williams receiving hardware from the Commodore; upper right - fleet champion George Fisher with his crew Tim McLane, Matt and Gregg Fisher. Below the Fisher picture is Sam Hayes and to their left is Gil Martinez. The middle picture shows the "brass" wrestling with the matter of who gets what trophy. Below the center picture on the left is Dave Bolling, grandson of Bill Rosebraugh, presenting the first Rosebraugh Trophy to Dean Vollmer, as having been selected the most improved skipper in the Club for the 1965 sailing season. Below that is a picture of Gov. Jim McLane presenting gifts to his race committee, Dale Dupler and Walt Rosshirt. Dale used many gallons of gas putting out the markers and bringing them in for the race committee and all who helped throughout the year on this chore, are contributing significantly to the success of the sailing season. On the right under the center picture is R/C Russ Luchtenberg with his crew, P/C Pete Burns, George Libby and Gov. Don Downey. Below Russ is fleet champion Dave Reynolds of the Highlander Fleet with crew, Billy, the middle one, and Tommy Reynolds and David Bolling.

On the second picture you see more pictures from the Halloween costume dance. Upper left is Susan Butsko with husband, Steve. The middle picture completely confuses me and the passage of time has dulled the memory of whom it is. We'll take a stab and say it's Pete Burns. On the upper right is Eddie Ballenger with wife, Judy. Beneath the Butskos are Ernie and Lil Wilson and beside the Wilsons are Fred and Emmie Klein. When you speak of masquerading, you see what we mean. I have forgotten who won the prizes, but I remember Ernie and Lil won one of them. Beneath the Wilsons are Ginny DeMary, Sr. and Jim Cartnell. On the right beside them is the "headless horseman" Bob Richards and his pumpkin queen, Jodi. In the bottom row at the left is Billy Graham, who did a magnificent job when the orchestra didn't show up. He brought his electric organ and stereo from home and the combination of the two and his complete competence as a musician, made everyone glad the orchestra show. How these three gruesome characters on the right got into the Halloween pictures, I don't understand, but they are past commodores George Crites, Chris Lambrecht and "Pop" Fisher. For your information, they are not masquerading -- this is the way they normally look.

Recently the Columbus Dispatch had an article and picture of Johnny Ranft, who is the newly elected president of the Columbus Board of Realtors. Congratulations Johnny, but we still hope you will have time to come to the Club frequently.

You are reminded that with the approval of the Board of Governors, Gov. Tom Boswell has closed down the kitchen on Mondays and Tuesdays during the winter months. Private parties may be arranged directly with Theda Smith.

It was good to see Howard and Winnie Glenn around the Club last week end. Since they moved to Harbor Hills from the Towpath, they have really been neglecting their friends at the Club. We hope to see more of them.

We are happy to report that Ginny DeMary, Jr. is back in good health and showing her usual charm. Ginny has agreed to be special feature editor for the Log and we have some good assignments in mind for her, which we hope will keep the Log interesting for your reading. Getting news this month has been like "pulling teeth from a hen".

Many members will be happy to know that the 1965 Snowball Regatta did not cost the Club any out-of-pocket money. Actually, there was a surplus, which was contributed to the Club treasurer. This, of course, would not be possible without the tremendous support from all members, and particularly the Ladies Auxiliary. We hope to keep the Snowball on a paying basis. We would again like to thank Bud and Fran Sayre for the contribution of the hoist without charge.

We would again like to thank Alice Rosebraugh for giving us free parking during the New Year's Eve party. We hope Alice will join us at the Club for the evening of fun.

Commodore Offenbergs asked us to report that crew cups for all skippers who won trophies will be mailed to the skippers shortly after the first of the year. They did not arrive in time for Trophy Day and the Christmas rush has prevented their being mailed thus far. P/C Haggard will mail them soon after New Year's. Speaking of the Haggards, I guess they will be flying South after the post Christmas business is over.

Linda McAllister, daughter of P/C Bert and Bernie McAllister, was elected queen of the homecoming celebrations at Millersport Liberty Union High School. She was pictured in the Columbus Dispatch, with her court, and we hope to run this picture in a future Log.

Gov. Don Downey wants all the younger set to get their ice skates all sharpened!! As soon as the ice is ready, he wants to get some skating parties going -- complete with the bonfire and urns of hot chocolate.

PLEASE, PLEASE SEND US SOME NEWS SO THE
