FROM THE BRIDGE * * *

AUGUST-SEPTEMBER 1971

The "Luau" was the real highlight of the entire season. Doris and Bob Dye really outdid themselves. The planning and work to put on an extravaganza like this is beyond the comprehension of most of us. This was accomplished only by having a committee to really pitch in, and we all want to thank them.

Election of officers for the new year will be held on September 19th. There is a superb list of candidates, whose names appear in this issue, who are very sincere in their wish to be elected and help further the Club's advance. I certainly hope we will have a record turnout to vote. This is the opportunity for all members to do their part in directing Club affairs.

This will be my final front page of the Log. I want to say it has been very gratifying to be Commodore. We have managed to have several long overdue capital improvements completed, and as usual many more ideas are still unfulfilled. The year has been very successful in new members accepted into our ranks. Our financial condition is good, which will allow more improvements during the coming year.

Everyone has been very kind to me, and we have had a very harmonious year, with no major problems. I certainly want to thank the officers and members who have helped.

MURRAY A. HEADLEE
Commodore

LADIES AUXILIARY

Nancy Dressel

The August luncheon brought out thirty girls to the Yacht Club. The tables were decorated with baskets of peaches and summer flowers. The flowers were won by Nora Ballenger, Jane Langely, Peg Beeson, Judy Ballenger and June Headlee. The fruit was won by Mrs. Cruikshank.

Dorothy Slattery is under the weather with a fractured ankle. I'm sure cards and phone calls would be appreciated.

The ladies are making some improvements around the Club. There is new sand in the sandpile and a new screen on the fireplace in the main lounge.

The Ladies Auxiliary was very surprised and most proud to learn that $500.00 has been left to us by our late and dear friend, Chuck Williams.

Congratulations to Bob and Sandra Hartman on the birth of their daughter, Holly Theresa, who arrived August 14.

Margie and Dave Cox are in Europe vacationing. The Doc Greiners are in Alaska and the Don Farrows in the Bahamas.

The Nominating Committee announces its selection of the candidates for the office of Treasurer for 1971-72. They are: Bernice Greiner, Peg Beeson and Lillian Kennel.

Let's all come out and vote on Election Day.

JUNIOR RACE WEEK - PUT-IN-BAY

During the week of August 2 through August 5, our Junior Race team, composed of Matt Fisher, Jeff Metzger, Terry Peters and Greg Fisher, represented the Buckeye Lake Yacht Club and, in spite of several bad breaks, ended up fifth out of 20 teams representing the various clubs in the Inter-Lake Yachting Association.

The team won two races and was leading in another one when their mast broke. However, rather than giving up and dropping out of the race, the crew made a jury rig, made the boom the mast, the main sheet the forestay, the spinnaker sheets the shrouds and stayed in the race and were able to finish 15th. Then they were towed in to shore where they were able to get another mast and race the last race, which they won - going away. It is unfair to the winning crew to indicate that they could or should have won. Their tactics and sailing were great and their crew work superb in all of the races.

Their crew was extremely happy with the new boat that the members of the Club have so generously donated to the Junior program. On behalf of these Juniors and all future Juniors, may I give a heartfelt thanks.

The crew was voted the Sportsmanship Trophy by the other team members and was given a standing ovation by the crews and officials at the banquet. Our hats are off to our boys. We are proud of them!

Thanks to Sue and Ed Metzger for being the chaperones for the week. Their time and effort are very much appreciated.

Also, thanks again to Gus Schell and Cliff Dum, who were the judges during the Race Week.

NOTEWORTHY

A hearty "Welcome Aboard" to the following new members: Carl and Nancy Andrioff, John and Inga Snyder, Harry and Betty Jean Triffon.

Word has been received of the death of Commodore Clark Beverly at his home in Sandusky, Ohio. He was a life member of B.L.Y.C. and Commodore in 1942. His activities in I.L.Y.A., Power Squadron and other boating organizations are too numerous to mention.

In a previous Log, it was erroneously reported that life member Charles Williams passed away in California. He lived with his sister in Columbus, and his generous attitude to B.L.Y.C. was manifest in his will, wherein B.L.Y.C. was given a bequest of $1,000. He first became associated with B.L.Y.C. about 1910 and made the Club his second home.

Hats off and congratulations to Bill Reynolds, who recently placed fourth in The Highlander National Championship Regatta at Edgewater Yacht Club in Cleveland.

Hert Hunt invites any new members who would like a sail boat ride to call him (228-6369) and he will arrange it.
