LOG

FROM THE BRIDGE ☆ ☆ ☆

JULY, 1986

THE TIDE IS COMING IN.... I'M TOLD.

July is here and the summer is just starting at the Club. Things to remember this month are the Junior Pig Roast, July 3rd, the 4th Ceremony and Boat Parade, and the races both at the Club and Bay Week. The dates and times are in this log.

Those of you that pledged to buy notes for the pool, we need to get the money in to start the pool. Those of you that intended to buy might still be able to purchase them, call your Governor or Flag Officer.

The Commodores' Steak Fry was well attended. Did you notice the new summer white uniforms some of them were wearing? Pretty sharp!

See you at the Club.

LADIES AUXILIARY

The June meeting of the B.L.Y.C. Ladies Auxiliary was the annual card party. Hostesses Jan Kerr and Lorraine O'Donnell did a beautiful job of decorating the club and providing many little touches to make the afternoon a special one for the members and their guests.

After a delicious lunch, Ginny Fulgham, president, called the meeting to order. The members introduced their guests, the minutes were read, and the treasurer's report was given.

The storage cabinet for the new mothers' support group has been purchased and installed.

Lorraine reported on the handicap lift. There have been several unexpected occurrences; one of which, is that the walk needs to be widened to accomodate wheelchairs. A special thank you was extended to Zenna Sayre for her generous gift towards this lift.

Carole Donnelly introduced Dick Harbold. He is president of the Buckeye Lake Civic Association. Dick spent a few minutes talking to the members about the lake development.

Ginny reminded the members about the ice cream social coming in August.

Jan and Lorraine awarded door prizes throughout an afternoon of socializing and card playing.

PLAN TO MEET YOUR FRIENDS AT THE BLYC FOR A FABULOUS JULY 4th WEEKEND

BAR AND KITCHEN

V.C. Greg Alspach

Friday nights have really taken off at BLYC. For the past several weeks well over 100 people have enjoyed a relaxed and pleasant Friday evening at BLYC as they gear-up for the weekend. If you haven't been one of them, why not come on out and join in. Reservations are not yet mandatory.

The pool table in the upstairs meeting room is getting more and more use. Ron Hayes evaluated the situation and made a trip to Southern Bowling and Billiards to provide the proper accessories for the table. So it's set and ready to go. Only one rule: players MUST BE 16 years of age or older to play. Younger children may play if an adult plays with them. The machine presently takes two quarters to operate. If this is a problem pass your thoughts on to any Governor or John Doneff.

Gov. Gaiser has been doing such a good job that you will probably receive this LOG prior to the July 4th weekend. Thus, the following reminders. Don't forget the JUNIOR PIG ROAST on Thursday, July 3rd. It will be a great starter for the weekend. The Flag Raising Ceremonies on the fourth begin at 10:30 AM with a fly-over and are followed by racing. Plan to bring your friends and spend the weekend at BLYC.

See you at the club.

Attention: Commodore Don White

Dear Commodore White:

BancOhio National Bank has served as Trustee for several years for Gladys G. Fast. Mrs. Fast passed away in August, 1985.

We are in the process of completing the administration of her estate and trust, and one stipulation was a gift in the amount of $1,000 payable to the Buckeye Lake Yacht Club in memory of her beloved husband, Charles F. Fast. I have enclosed a check payable to the club's order with this letter.

I have also enclosed a copy of this letter that I would ask you to sign as a receipt and, also, to complete our records, please supply the club's tax identification number.

Very truly yours,

TRUST GROUP

Remember Me?

Some people call me Old Glory, others call me the Star Spangled Banner, but whatever they call me, I am your Flag, the Flag of the United States of America . . . . Something has been bothering me, so I thought I might talk it over with you . . . .

I remember sometime ago people lined up on both sides of the street to watch the parade and naturally, I was leading every parade, proudly waving in the breeze. When your daddy saw me coming, he immediately removed his hat and placed it over his heart . . . . remember? And you, I remember you. Standing there as straight as a soldier. You didn't have a hat but you were giving the right salute. Remember your little sister? Not to be outdone, she was saluting the same as you, with her right hand over her heart . . . . remember?

What happened? I'm still the same old flag. Oh, I have a few more stars since you were a boy. A lot more blood has been shed since those parades of long ago.

But now I don't feel as proud as I used to. When I come down your street, you just stand there with your hands in your pockets and I may get a small glance, then you look away. I see the children running around and shouting . . . . they don't seem to know who I am . . . . I saw one man take off his hat and then look around. He didn't see anybody else with theirs off so he quickly put his hat back on.

Is it a sin to be patriotic any more? Have you forgotten what I stand for and where I've been — Anzio, Korea, Guadalcanal, and Vietnam. Take a look at the Memorial Honor Rolls sometime, of those who never came back to keep this Republic free . . . . One Nation Under God . . . . When you salute me, you are actually saluting them.

Well, it won't be long until I'll be coming down your street again. So, when you see me, stand straight, place your right hand over your heart . . . . and I'll salute you, by waving back . . . . and I'll know that . . . .

YOU REMEMBERED!!

"The top one is our weatherman."

Young Wilbert came home from school and announced to his mother, "I got two free ice cream cones this afternoon."

"How?" asked his mother. "I certainly hope you didn't swipe them."

"Oh, I wouldn't do that," Wilbert assured her. "I just took one cone in my right hand, took the other in my left hand, and told the lady behind the counter, 'Will you please get the money from my pocket, and be careful not to hurt my pet snake?'"

A good day: When the wheels of your shopping cart all go in the same direction.

A police officer in Hagerstown, Maryland, pulled a lady over to the curb and told her that her signals were confusing. "First you put on your left light, then you waved your hand up and down, and then you turned right." The woman explained, "I decided not to turn left and when my hand was going up and down . . . I was erasing the left turn."

"No ocean sounds today, sir. We still haven't recovered from the breakup of AT&T."
