LOG

FROM THE BRIDGE ☆ ☆ ☆

JUNE, 1987

June gets the summer season into full swing with lots of activities at BLYC. Don't forget the Commodores Steak Fry on June 20th. Not only do you get to have your steak custom grilled by your favorite Commodore, but you also get to hear one of the premier bands in central Ohio, Phil Dirt and the Dozers. This event is also part of a Junior Fund Raiser so come early, stay late and bring your friends. But DO make reservations so the Commodores will know how many to prepare for.

You will notice some differences at the club next time you visit. The air conditioning is complete and in operation. Already there have been several evenings when its presence has been appreciated. Also, we have increased our acreage somewhat by driving 58 feet of steel seawall in the back basin. This was needed to replace the broken concrete wall and was accomplished through normal capital improvements and the pool construction.

The Pool Rules and Policies were approved by the Board of Governors and are in effect at this time. The rules are posted at the pool area and there is a copy further in this LOG. Please help make the pool personnel's job easier by following the rules and policies as posted. We don't want to hassle or confront anyone but the rules will be enforced in order to provide a safe and quality operation for all members. Please DO note the pool hours. Use of the pool is specifically prohibited except during posted hours of operation.

Also nearing completion is a joint venture between the Ladies Auxiliary and the men to remodel the Junior Lounge into a changing facility for the pool. The lounge will be divided into a men's and women's side, each with sink, shower, and toilet. Much thanks go to Wilbur Wuellner, Pat Patterson, and George Conrad for their help in designing and implementing this project and especially to the Ladies for their willingness to enter into such a joint project with the men.

Please note that sailing camp is at a slightly different time this year - one week earlier. As usual a quality camp with skilled instruction will be provided. If you have a junior who is interested send your registration form to Gov. Leichner as soon as possible.

See you at the pool.

CLUB RACING

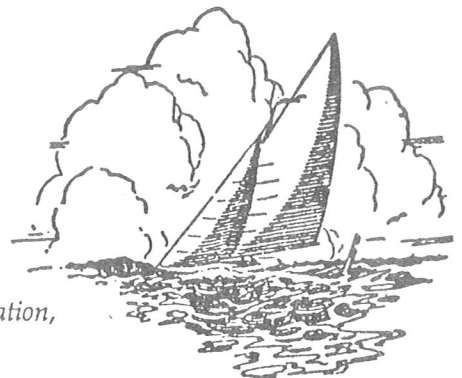

MOTHER'S DAY - MAY 10th 1987

The Season kickoff for the Cruising Fleet featured match racing with a double elimination qualifier to win.

Tom Eisert, along with his sons' help, captured four consecutive victories on a challenging course, masterfully laid out by Vice Commodore Boehm. The wind was described as "Hearty to Gusty" and provided for a couple of close, exciting finishes.

Match racing continues on May 17th and on occasional dates thru out the season.

EASTPORT FACILITY NEWS

ATTENTION ALL BOATERS, SAIL AND POWER

In order to provide easy access to the hoist facility at Eastport for all club members and yet continue to provide a secure boat storage area for club members who wish to use it, there is a slightly different policy this year at Eastport.

Any club member who wishes to have a key to operate the hoist and utilize the hoist area can obtain one for a deposit of $5.00. Keys are available from Club Manager John Doneff or Eastport Governor Pat Patterson. This key will open all gates and doors necessary to access the hoist.

Any club member who wishes to utilize the storage area for storage of a boat or trailer can obtain a key to that area by paying the annual $75.00 storage fee. These keys have already been mailed to you if you included your storage fee on your 1987 dues. If you have not received yours, contact Governor Pat Patterson (928-1318 home, 860-5867 work) to find out why. The key to the storage area gate also works all the other hoist facility locks.

If you plan on storing your boat or trailer at Eastport this year you will need the appropriate key. Once again, Pat Patterson is the governor to see.

DOCKS AND FACILITIES

Docks are filling up and my list is getting shorter for those waiting for a dock. There are still a few docks left. Some in the back of the Club, for smaller boats, and a few down at Eastport for larger boats. If you are on the list and have not been contacted and could use one of the above docks or if you aren't on the list and want to be give me a call.

Dock repairs are progressing nicely. thanks to Frankie Foster.

LADIES AUXILIARY

THE BUCKEYE LAKE YACHT CLUB LADIES AUXILIARY WAS CALLED TO ORDER 5-12-87 BY PRESIDENT CAROLE DONNELLY AT THE BLYC WITH 37 MEMBERS AND GUESTS PRESENT. MINUTES AND THE TREASURER'S REPORTS WERE READ AND APPROVED.

LORRAINE O'DONNELL REPORTED THAT LAS VEGAS NIGHT NET PROFIT, INCLUDING A $100.00 ANONYMOUS DONATION, WAS $621.00 WITH ATTENDANCE OF 98 PEOPLE. ALTHOUGH THERE WAS A PROFIT, ATTENDANCE WAS DOWN FROM PREVIOUS YEARS AND HER RECOMMENDATION WAS THAT WE REEVALUATE THIS PARTY AND EITHER ELIMINATE OR SUBSTITUTE ANOTHER FUNCTION. SHE ASKED FOR ANY IDEAS AND ALSO THANKED DAN KERR AND RICK FULGHAM FOR THE MANY LOVELY DOOR PRIZES AND PAST AND FUTURE COMMODORES AND GOVERNORS AND THEIR MATES FOR ALL THE HELP.

VICE PRESIDENT VIRGINIA CONRAD REPORTED THAT THE RAFFLE FOR THE "BASKET OF BOOZE" IS PROGRESSING NICELY AND THAT WE MAY START SELLING THE MEMBERSHIP RAFFLE TICKETS WHICH WILL BE DISTRIBUTED AT THE JUNE MEETING.

GINNY FULGHAM HAS ORDERED SHIRTS, SWEATERS AND CARDIGANS FOR THE SHOWCASE AND ASKED OUR OPINION ON ADDING BLYC T-SHIRTS TO THE SHOWCASE. PRESIDENT CAROLE DONNELLY SUGGESTED ALSO THAT A BEACH TOWEL WITH THE EMBLEM MIGHT BE A GOOD ITEM.

THE JUNE MEETING WILL BE A MIMOSA, CARD AND SHOWCASE PARTY TO BE HELD BY THE POOL BEGINNING AT 11:30 WITH LUNCH AT 12:30.

CAROLE DONNELLY READ A LETTER THE LADIES AUXILIARY BOARD SENT TO THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS STATING THE LADIES AUXILIARY WAS WILLING TO CONTRIBUTE $2000.00 FOR JR LOUNGE RESTROOMS AND DRESSING ROOMS. THIS WAS ACCEPTED AND THEY WILL USE THE EXISTING DOOR TO THE LOUNGE WITH A RAMP FOR THE HANDICAPPED.

CAROLE DONNELLY ANNOUNCED THE TOUR OF HOMES WILL BE JULY 12th AT BUCKEYE LAKE WHICH WILL INCLUDE A BOAT TOUR PERHAPS A FIRST IN HOME TOURS.

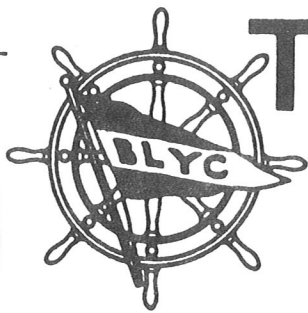

FOLLOWING THE BUSINESS MEETING BEE HOLSTEIN, A MEMBER OF LADIES AUXILIARY WITH HER STUDIO ON SOUTHBANK, SPOKE TO THE GROUP ON PRESSED FLOWER ARTISTRY. DRIED PRESSED FLOWERS IS AN OLD VICTORIAN CUSTOM AND WAS CONSIDERED VERY LADYLIKE AND IS NOW MAKING A COMEBACK. SHE SHOWED US MANY LOVELY SAMPLES OF HER WORK AND SUGGESTED THAT ANYONE INTERESTED MAY VISIT HER STUDIO TO LEARN THE PROCESS AS "YOU MAY FEED A HUNGRY MAN A FISH AND THE NEXT DAY HE WILL BE HUNGRY. BUT IF YOU TEACH A MAN TO FISH HE NEVER WILL BE."

PRESSED FLOWERS AND THE ART OF MAKING THESE ITEMS ARE THERE TO BE ENJOYED ALONG WITH THE MEMORIES FOR ALL SEASONS.

THE GROUP THANKED BEE AND THE MEETING WAS ADJOURNED.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

LINDA U. WING
SECRETARY

THE WAY WE WERE.

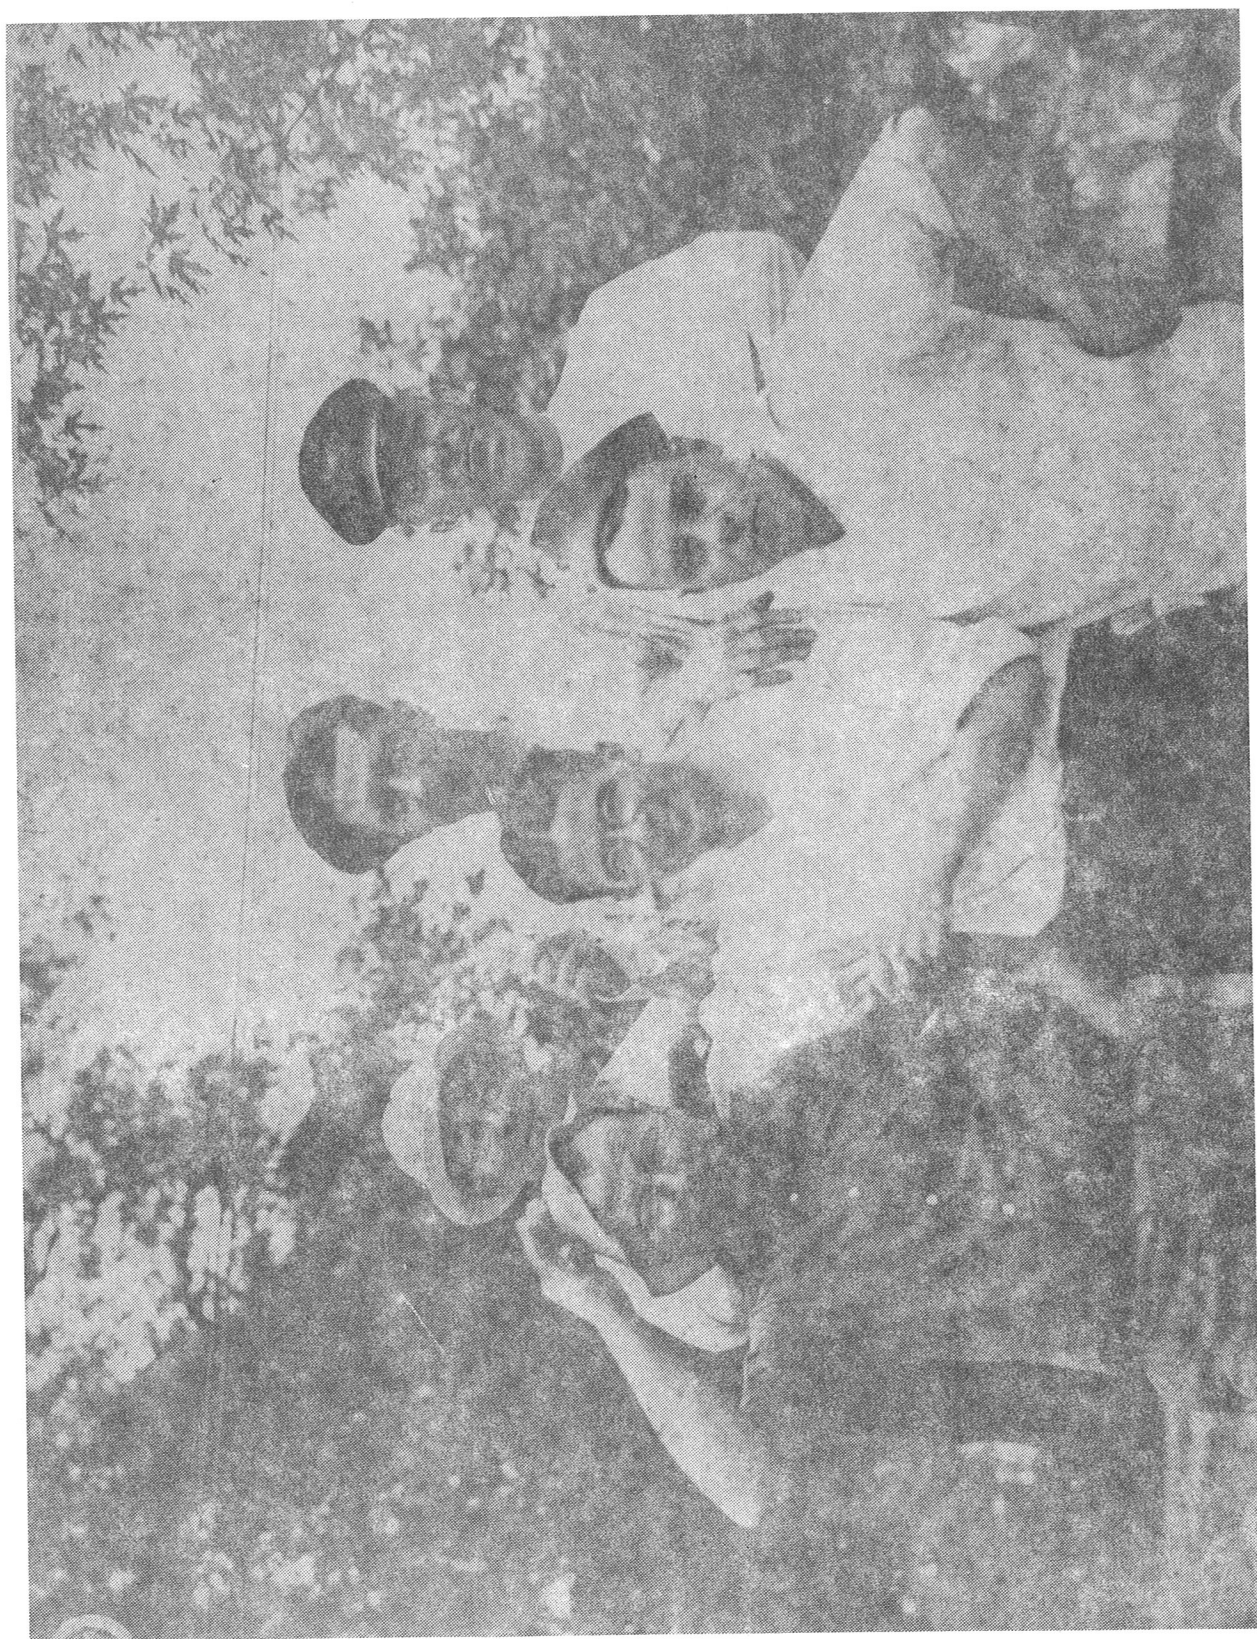

By Comm. Frank Foster, Historian

Many thanks to Gov. George Conrad for providing me with the new history display case in the Commodore's Lounge. I hope to install displays which I can rotate two or three times a year.

Comm. Greg Alspach, in doing some upstairs cleaning last fall, came across several old photographs. Some of these I will put in the display case. However, two are being published in this Log. The one shows six early Buckeye Lake characters, apparently having a good time. I believe I could identify the three in the rear. However, I suspect Comm. Frank Miller might be able to identify all six. Interestingly enough, the back of this picture has handwritten "Buckeye Lake, Sunday, May 24, 1914". Unlike most of the old pictures, this is not a formal gathering, but shows what apparently was an informal stag gathering at the lake.

The other picture, showing work being done on a boat, was obviously taken in a southerly direction from approximately the position of the stairway end of the new swimming pool. From the appearance of the cap and the front porch before the westerly dining extension was added, this was perhaps around the same time. This picture too shows an informal, typical day at BLYC. Note the sailboat passing in an easterly direction on the lake.

Obviously early life and times at BLYC had great similarities to the activities of today.

GOV. EDDIE GAISER

Many members have requested a provision for an absentee ballot for members that find it impossible to attend our fall election.

Election day is one of our most enjoyable and best attended events and we encourage everyone to attend, but there are times when a member finds it impossible to attend. Voting is a privilege that should be made available to those members.

However, we are most concerned that this privilege not be abused. The following is a copy of the petition along with the instructions for obtaining an absentee ballot.

B.L.Y.C.

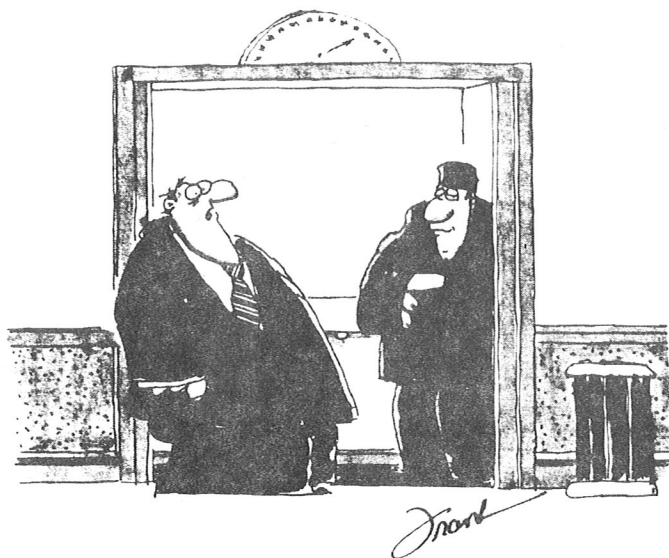

1. Must be a member in good standing having paid his dues and other fees in full.
2. Must have a record of attending and voting in the last two elections
3. The BALLOT must be MAILED to the clubs' post office box in time for arrival Friday - prior election day
4. The envelope must be marked "ABSENTEE BALLOT, DO NOT OPEN BEFORE 9:00 A.M." dated for the current election day.
5. The envelope should be opened and counted by the election committee at the same time the ballots are counted.
6. ABSENTEE ballots must be obtained from the election committee.
7. We will not distribute any BALLOTS unless we receive a written request from a current member
8. A brief explanation of the need for an absentee ballot.
9. Valid reason should be illness, death in family, must be out of city, important business meeting, etc.

It is necessary that the board of governors receive a petition signed by at least 50 member signatures to make the proper changes to the constitution.

This petition will be posted on the bulletin board at the club. If you would like to have an absentee ballot provision, please sign the petition.

Eddie Gaiser, governor

We Keep Trying

Most of us never get too old to learn some new way of being stupid.

Blissfully Unburdened

While helping my son with his spelling, I came to the words "conscious" and "conscience." Did he know their meanings?

"Sure, Mom," he replied. "Conscious is when you are aware of something and conscience is when you wish you weren't."

"I guess you realize that's a weed? ..."

No News Was Better

Here, in its entirety, is the text of a post card received by the parents of a 9-year-old camper:

"Dear Mom and Dad, I knew all along that something awful was going to happen and last night it did. Love, Jimmy."

Love Hides The Weeds

Courtship is like looking at the pictures in a seed catalog. Marriage is what actually comes up in your garden.

This Is Plain English?

You kind of wonder how the Allies won the war when you read the following directive from the British Admiralty written in 1940:

"It is necessary for technical reasons that these warheads should be stored upside down, that is, with the top at the bottom and the bottom at the top. In order that there may be no doubt as to which is the bottom and which is the top, for storage purposes, it will be seen that the bottom of each warhead has been labeled with the word 'TOP'."

Last Rights

Late one night before an election, two campaign workers were in the town cemetery copying the names on tombstones into the register of voters. Suddenly one man declared, "I'm not going to write this name! We've got enough names anyway."

His companion looked at the tombstone and saw the name his partner was rejecting: "Casimir Wladjlewski Bjdmovemndrogowskivics."

"Copy it, Waldo," he ordered. "This is America. That guy's got as much right to vote as anybody in this cemetery."

Committee: A group of people put together to share the blame.

Sign in the parking lot of a karate studio: "For Karate Students Only. All other cars will be broken in half."

Wise-cracker Special

A customer in a pet shop was going from cage to cage, looking for a talkative parakeet. At each cage, he cooed: "Can you talk, little bird? If so, say something."

At one cage, the bird winked and said: "Yeah, I can talk, sing and tell jokes. Can you fly or eat birdseed?"

But Not Very Well

A doctor examining a patient noticed that the man's shins were badly bruised. "Do you play hockey or soccer?" he asked.

"Neither," replied the patient. "Just bridge."

Memory Bank

A woman in Warsaw, Poland, walked into a meat market and asked the butcher, "Do you have any beef?"

"No," he replied.

"Veal?" she asked.

"No."

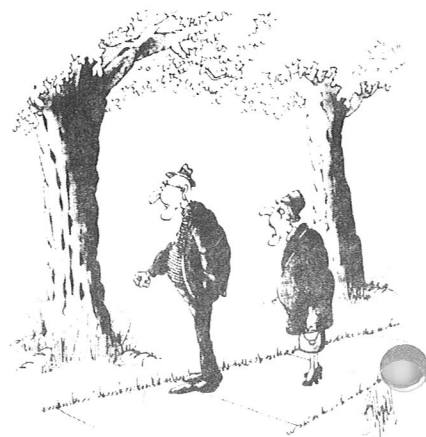

"Pork? ... Ham? ... Sausage?"

The butcher replied "no" to each, finally saying, "We don't have any of those."

After she left, the butcher shook head, and said to one of his helpers: "That old woman is a pest, but what a memory!"
