FROM THE BRIDGE ☆☆☆ JUNE 1988

At the beginning of May the Club got into full swing for the season. The first race day of the year was beautiful, not only because it was Mother's Day, but the sun was shining and there was good wind for the sailors. By a stroke of luck the Fosters came in first.

The sign coming into the Club should be completed shortly. Missing from the sign are:

- 1) No pets allowed.
- 2) Children 12 or under must wear a life jacket.

Life jackets may be removed while in the club house or if a release form is signed by the parent.

The new electrical system is completed. I am pleased with the job.

The hoist is repaired and can be used by Club members. It cost about $4,000.00 for this repair. PLEASE BE CAREFUL when using the hoist. DO NOT PULL the hoist with the electrical cable or let it swing freely. Control it at all times.

The pool is open and the chairs will arrive shortly. It is a heated pool so please enjoy your swim while adhering to the safety rules.

June 3rd is Phil Dirt. It should be a great night of fun thanks to the efforts of Pat Patterson and the Juniors.

June 18 is the Commodores Steak Fry. This is one of the best deals when it comes to a fine meal at the Club. Don't miss it.

Junior sailing camp starts June 20. If you haven't signed up your children contact Pat Patterson or myself for information.

The log will not be out by July 4 so I want to remind you of our July 4 flag raising at 10:00 a.m. Please come out and join us. Dress whites for those who have them.

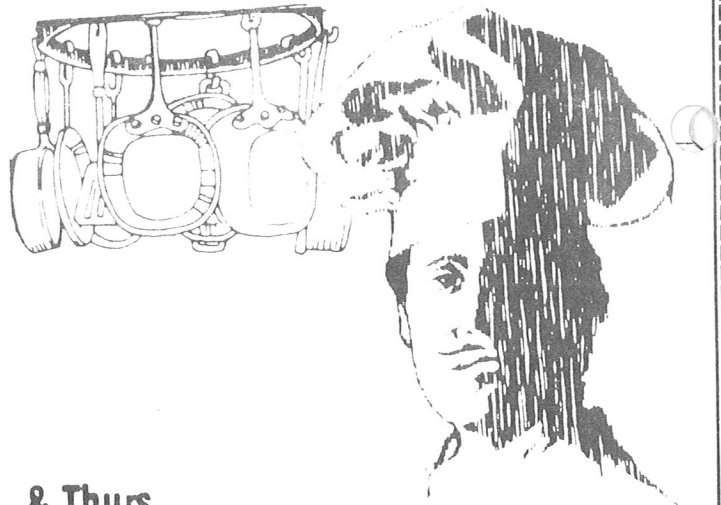

Don't forget July 2 is the Independence Day party.

If ever you have a suggestion or problem at the Club please contact me or one of the Governors. We want to maintain the highest quality and your suggestions are encouraged and welcome.

Robert R. Boehm
Commodore

DOCKS

The State of Ohio has notified us that we must pay the higher license fee for all the docks in area 8. Since the license fees run from $12.00 to $40.00 in our total number of docks, we will average the license fee for 1989 and everyone will pay an equal amount.

Please check the "Bulletin Board" at the club. There is a current list of our Docks and the people that are in each dock. Check to see that your boat is in the correct slip. If there is an error, contact me immediately so that we can make the correction.

The current "Waiting List" for docks is also posted on the bulletin board. Again check to see if your name is listed if not, let me know.

The only dock for rent is Dock #117 at East Port. The price is $190.00 plus $15.00 license for a total of $205.00 for 1988. This dock was recently constructed, is in good repair and will handle a good sized boat. First Come, First Serve.

Eddie Gaiser, rear commodore

RACE AND REGATTA

The Mothers Day opening race was a perfect day. We had lots of air for the seven competing boats. Frank and Frank Foster were the first over the line.

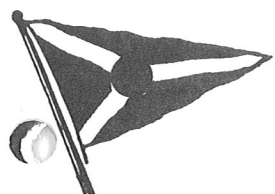

Race official, Commodore Carl Petersilge, ran the race shack with precision timing. Commodore Boehm, as power support, set a perfect course.

May 15th, our second race was equally successful, with Dick Godfrey the winner.

Commodore Bob Dye did his usual good job of being Race official, with the help of Commodore Dick Wolfe setting a good course.

As appointed delegate from B.L.Y.C., to the Inter-Lake Association.

I attended the Spring meeting, April 8-9-10, 1988, at Sheraton Westgate Inn, Toledo, Ohio.

This years Commodore, Gary DeHan and his Flag Officers, reported they have obtained a Corporate Gift from Society Bank, Cleveland, Ohio, in the amount of a total of $ 30,000.00. This will come in the amount of $ 10,000.00 per year for the next three years. Money will be used in providing dockage at Put-in-Bay, for the Senior Regatta. The dockage price has been going up every year.

It looks like I-L.Y.A. will obtain the 501 (C)(3) rating we have applied for, due to the change in format changes. If this rating comes through, it should help out the Junior Program.

Junior Races this year will be at Put-in-Bay, July 23 rd. thru July 28th.

Senior Regatta, Aug. 1st. thru Aug. 3 rd..
Power Boat Regatta, Aug. 4-5-6.

I attended the Junior Meeting on Apr. 9th. This years chairman is Bruce Ashbrook, 825 Athens, Oregon Ohio 43616, Phone 419-691-8959. Co-Chairman is Abigail & Ed Skoch. This year the juniors will be given identification wrist bands. These will be used for meals, etc.. Juniors, will be White, Judges, Blue, Parents, Red. Harold Christenson reported, they are considering putting Judges in small boats behind the starting line, to observe cheating which might take place before the starts of the elimination races. They have been also working on having all Juniors registered in the same hotel.

End of report.

It has been a pleasure serving as delegate to I-L.Y.A. this year.

Very truly yours,

BLYC LADIES AUXILIARY
MINUTES OF MEETING HELD MAY 10, 1988

The meeting was called to order by President Ginny Conrad. Each person present was asked to stand and introduce herself and name her favorite bird and flower.

The Minutes of the previous meeting were read, the Treasurer's report was given and Ginny Fulgham gave the balance in the Showcase checking account and announced that she has more shirts and sweaters on order.

Margaret Weber read the letter to wives of new members of BLYC which she has been sending. She reported that she has sent out approximately thirty (30) letters.

Ginny asked everyone to turn in their money for the "Basket of Booze" raffle and to pick up more tickets to sell.

Dot Best gave a very comprehensive report on "A Nite at the Races". We had a profit of approximately $800.00 after expenses. A critique meeting will be held at a later date to decide what if any changes should be made. She thanked Al Wing for doing a good job, and also thanked everyone involved. She thinks it is a fine project.

The President announced that this is the last night meeting until October. Starting in June, the meetings will be luncheons, with Cocktails at 11:30, lunch at 12:30. The hostesses were thanked for the great job they did and complimented on the table decorations. The drawing was held for the centerpieces.

The meeting was then adjourned and we all had a good time playing Bingo.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Wing, Vice President in absence of Secretary, Terry Kochensparger

PROGRAM:

Paula Brown will speak about some of the very interesting and exciting sailing trips she and her husband have taken. Please plan to attend.

I NOW HAVE MY BOAT IN THE WATER AND ITS GETTING HARDER AND HARDER TO CONCENTRATE ON HOUSE AND GROUNDS AS MY INTEREST TURNS MORE AND MORE TO THE LAKE AND SAILING. HOWEVER I HAVE DEVOTED SOME TIME TO THE CLUB SINCE MY LAST ARTICLE.

FIRST OF ALL, WE DID NOT COMPLETE ALL THE PAINTING AND LANDSCAPING WE HAD PLANNED FOR OUR REGULAR SPRING WORKDAY SO WE HAD ANOTHER SESSION TO TRY AND FINISH THIS UP. MY SINCERE THANKS TO JIM KYSER, JERRY JONES, JOHN WATSON AND BILLY & BOBBY BOEHM WHO CONTRIBUTED THEIR TIME AND TALENT TO THIS EFFORT.

AS SOME OF YOU MAY KNOW, WE REPLACED THE COVERS ON THE DIRECTOR'S CHAIRS IN THE GOB'S MESS EARLIER THIS YEAR. THESE COVERS WERE PURCHASED FROM AN EXTREMELY LARGE, UNIVERSALLY KNOWN RETAILER AND THEY IMMEDIATELY BEGAN RIPPING APART WITHIN DAYS OF INSTALLATION, THESE COVERS HAVE NOW BEEN REPLACED WITH CUSTOM MADE COVERS (OF RED) AND THEY REALLY DRESS UP THE BAR AREA.

TWO
ONE (OR TO BE MORE ACCURATE) ADDITIONS HAVE ALSO BEEN MADE TO THE CLUB WHICH SOME OF YOU MAY HAVE SEEN, RECENTLY, ED LEVISON AND JUDY DONATED TWO VERY LARGE, BEAUTIFUL BOSTON FERNS TO THE CLUB WHICH ARE NOW HANGING ON THE PORCH ON EITHER SIDE OF THE FRONT STAIRS. THEY LOOK GREAT, PLEASE THANK JUDY AND ED WHEN YOU SEE THEM.

JIM MCBRIDE - GOV. - HOUSE & GROUNDS

A LOOK BACK: THE HISTORY OF EXCUSE-MAKING

Hundreds of billions of years ago, before there were countries, cities, corporations or a department of motor vehicles, a universe was created. As with any major universe, the first few days were a bit slow: Man seemed content gathering roots and berries, breaking the monotony with an occasional hand wash at the river's edge.

"Things take time," our creator reasoned.

After a few more days, the creator looked back down only to find his people not making the progress he had imagined. "A bunch of lazy slob!" he muttered, "and to think I had projected solid room deodorizers by the mid 1600's."

Confused and rejected, the creator put away the rough drafts for the first Twinkie, defeated in his attempts to figure out how to get the creme in the cake without leaving a trace, when it hit him. Communication! That's what he needed to build a great world. A world where two great comediennesses, Lavernius and Shirlius, would one day rise to fame and entertain millions.

Faced with this problem of communication, the creator carefully considered several options; bone-cracking, hair-positioning, and foot-stomping (immediately ruled out and reserved for mathematical questions posed to a horse). The creator needed something more flexible, yet cost-efficient. And so he decided upon tone-exchanging.

Equipping each human with a voice box and a voice modulating contouring device (later changed to "tongue" when delicatessen owners complained they couldn't fit it on their take-out menu boards), each person was now prepared to communicate his feelings. But this constant groaning, though suitable for government employees, soon proved to have significant limitations. So the creator developed the word "abcdefghijklmnopqrstuvwxyz."

However, because he could develop only 100 different inflections, and therefore only 100 meanings, the creator decided to break the word down, calling its components "letters," the merging of two or more letters "words," and the merging of ten or more letters "medical terms."

Armed with the necessary variables to create literally thousands of words, as well as developing a new concept for a breakfast cereal, the creator had given birth to the vocabulary.

The trouble was that by the time all this came to pass, the sixth day had slipped by. It was now Sunday, the universal day of rest (except for those who work in major department stores) and the creator was forced to leave the responsibility of enforcing the rules of languages to human beings.

Left with the task of policing the vocabulary, men divided into two types, honest moral man and truth distorting man (commonly referred to as advertising executives). From this point in history to present there has been a battle between the two, with honest moral man typically inventing stories about the evils of lying and truth distorting man generally living a happier, more fulfilling life.

WHAT'S YOUR HFQ— (HONESTY FACTOR QUOTIENT?)

So you think you always tell the truth? This brief quiz will tell you how honest you really are:

Have you ever told a dear friend that her new hairdo looks great even though it looks as if her head fell in a Cuisinart?

a) Yes    b) No

Have you ever told a child any of the following:

- a) The Boogie Man will come get him if he doesn't go to bed.
- b) You'll turn the car around and return home if he doesn't stop chewing on his sister's hair.
- c) That you'll break his neck.
- d) That he'll go blind if he doesn't keep his hands out of a certain area.
- e) That his baby brother or sister came from a Sear's catalogue.

Have you ever returned a clothing item to a department store, claiming it was defective, even though it was you who accidentally put it in the dishwasher?

- a) Yes    b) No

Have you ever knowingly written a check without sufficient funds to cover it?

- a) Yes    b) No

As a child did you ever break an item in your parent's home and then do one of the following:

- a) Throw it out, thinking your mother would forget she ever owned such a hideous thing.
- b) Put it back together, hoping mom would think she broke it while dusting.

Have you ever told a friend that she hasn't gained an ounce, even though you originally thought she swallowed a Winnebago?

- a) Yes    b) No

Have you ever made a phone call and, upon finding the party not home, called the operator and told her you reached a wrong number?

- a) Yes    b) No

Have you ever had a premeditated arrangement with your mother to call her person-to-person from your dead uncle so she could call you back at the direct dial rate?

- a) Yes    b) No

Have you ever called in sick, even though you were in Wildwood, New Jersey, eating a potato knish on the boardwalk?

- a) Yes    b) No

Score 1 for each "Yes" answer.

Your Score: 1-2 HFQ#1
3-5 HFQ#2
5-7 HFQ#3
8-9 HFQ#4

EVALUATING YOUR SCORE

HFQ 1 As honest as you believed yourself to be, you do have the tendency to blurt out a little excuse now and then. You probably donate money to the 700 Club through your local television station, and are best suited to be a librarian or a mud analyst for a major chemical company.

HFQ 2 You are inventive and possess a crude mastery of the language. You can get yourself out of a good number of situations, but not all. You've probably stolen a magazine out of a doctor's office on occasion and are best suited to be a building superintendent or a salesman in the garment industry.

HFQ 3 You have a strong command in the art of excuse-making and really know how to get what you want out of life. You are best suited to be an entrepreneur, a leader of a fanatical religious cult or a real estate broker.

HFQ 4 You are truly a remarkable person. Cunning, clever, and devious, you can get anything out of anyone at any time. You are best suited to be a theatrical agent, a public relations whiz kid, or a scheduler of furniture deliveries for a major department store.

JACKSON WENT to a psychiatrist. "Doc," he said, "I've got trouble. Every time I get into bed I think there's somebody under it. I get under the bed, I think there's somebody on top of it. Top, under, top, under. I'm goin' crazy!"

"Just put yourself in my hands for two years," said the shrink. "Come to me three times a week, and I'll cure you."

"How much do you charge?"

"A hundred dollars per visit."

"I'll think about it."

Jackson never went back. Six months later he met the doctor on the street. "Why didn't you ever come to see me again?" asked the psychiatrist.

"For a hundred bucks a visit? A bartender cured me for ten dollars."

"Is that so! How?"

"He told me to cut the legs off the bed." —Larry Wilde, The Ultimate Jewish Joke Book (Bantam)

LILLIAN AUSTIN

Saved by know-how

The life-saving instruction course Ed Ballenger and his staff at Ballenger's restaurant south of Fort Myers took last year from the Iona-McGregor Fire Department paid off in a few seconds the other night. A couple were calmly eating their dinner at the San Carlos Boulevard restaurant when the wife suddenly screamed for help. Her husband had a piece of meat lodged in his throat and was unable to breathe.

Ballenger quickly administered the Heimlich maneuver for dislodging food in such cases and the man was immediately able to resume breathing. It only took a minute for Ballenger to apply the hard inward thrust to the stomach area that was required, but he and the grateful couple all felt it meant the difference between life and death.
