LOG

FROM THE BRIDGE ☆ ☆ ☆

JANUARY 1990

Although we have been experiencing record low temperatures over the past few weeks, the weather has not adversely affected Club activities. The OSU Band Party, always an enjoyable evening, was enhanced by a visit from the late "Woody Hayes". Speaking of visits, Santa, in red suit, whiskers and rosy cheeks (and bearing a strong resemblance to Jim Jennie) made an appearance at the Ladies Auxiliary Childrens Christmas Party. Heavy snowfall prevented the appearance of the Walnut Ridge Choir at the December Ice Breaker. Nevertheless, we were fortunate in being able to draw on the talents of Dot Best and Charla Bortz to get us into the spirit of the season. If lack of reservations kept you away from any of these functions, please remember that we have limited dining capacity and must honor requests on a first-come, first-reserved basis.

With this issue of the Log, the Club is entering its 84th year. All of these years have been exciting and productive in one form or another and this year promises to be no exception. The boating and social activities planning is complete and there are several special functions underway which will be announced when arrangements are finished. A calendar of events is included with this issue to help in your planning.

You will be receiving your dues statement shortly. I realize that the holiday season places additional financial concerns on all of us but I ask your cooperation in making your dues payment as early as possible.

JUNIOR MEMBER-MIKE VOLLMER STARS FOR HARVARD

November 18-Harvard University upset Yale 37-20. Mike Vollmer, Senior right defensive end was selected Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Defensive Player of the week for his nine tackles, one pass interception, one pass deflection, and one quarterback sack. For the same game Mike was selected Ivy League Defensive Player of the week and Harvard University Lineman of the Year. Mike will be playing in the Epson Ivy Bowl in Tokyo, Japan on December 23, 1989, to be aired on ESPN.

It's hard -- It's so hard ...

to keep your spirits up at this time of year! As you are reading this, the holiday season has come and gone, those Christmas bills are arriving daily, the Winter Blahs have reared their ugly heads and everyone is trying to stay warm. But be of good cheer! We not only have four Icebreakers and three Euchre parties remaining, but also the Sweetheart's Ball and the St. Patrick's Day party coming up this winter. So plan on coming to the Club often this winter. Enjoy the warmth of the fireplace, Marguerite's great food and the warmth of friends at the Club. Having done all of this, you will have survived the winter quite nicely, thank you...and you will once again be ready to enjoy another boating season at BLYC (which, of course, is where all of this is leading).

As I mentioned in my last article, we are planning a Muskingum River Cruise (hereafter known as the 1st Annual 'Tween the Trees Cruise) and a Sunken Treasure hunt. So far the response to both of these events has been very enthusiastic.

Also in the works, if there is enough interest, is a Bahamas or Florida Keys Sailing Cruise for next winter, probably during the week immediately after Christmas. The Cruising Fleet did this last year (in the Bahamas). We had four chartered boats, each with Captain and First Mates and we had a total of twenty-five people, including six non-sailors. Everyone, including the non-sailors, had a great time. In order to get this cruise organized again, we need to know very soon if we have enough interest to proceed with the planning. If you are interested (and you don't need to be a sailor), please notify me or Frank Foster as soon as possible. There will be a sign-up (indicating interest, not commitment) on the bulletin board at the Club. If there is enough interest, we will then schedule a meeting to get into the particulars. There are also sign-up sheets for the Treasure Hunt and the 'Tween the Trees Cruise on the bulletin board.

See you soon and get on board!

LADIES AUXILIARY

The Yacht Club never looked lovelier as the women gathered for the December 12th meeting of the BLYC Ladies Auxiliary. The soft lights of the festive decorations and the lighted candles at the tables, each arranged in seatings for four, looked inviting and relaxed. What a marvelous atmosphere to enter! As each member came in, she placed under the tree, canned goods for the LEADS food pantry.

Appetizers and wine were at the buffet table, and Rosie Walters, at the piano, played Christmas music for everyone's enjoyment. Hostesses were the Auxiliary officers, and greeters were Diane Koman and Topsy Harbold.

Still in the soft glow of candlelight, we enjoyed an excellent turkey dinner with all the trimmings, beautifully prepared and served by John Doneff and his crew.

No business meeting was held, so following dinner, we were entertained by the Newark Maennerchor and Damachor, introduced by Program Chairman Mary Lou Tussing. Several selections were sung in German, and the music was excellent.

Santa Claus, Al Wing, pulled from his bag, our exchange gifts, and each member attending got a picture sitting on Santa's knee. President Terry Kochensparger kept assuring Santa that each had been a "good girl" and deserving of a gift! Homer Tussing was the master photographer. It was a delightful evening in the midst of busy schedules.

The Auxiliary will not meet during January and February, but we'll be back together at our meeting March 13th. In the meantime, take special notice of the addition of bread and butter plates to the Yacht Club table service. These are compliments of the Ladies Auxiliary.

Best wishes for the new year,

Dot Best

HOUSE & GROUNDS

Since our last log we have had a new furnace installed at BLYC. Since a vertical type was installed, the club will have a better and more economical heat evenly throughout the building.

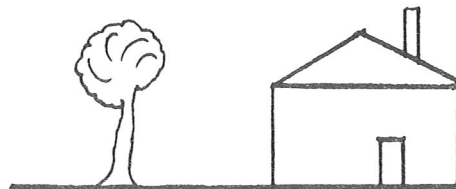

Other items have been repaired and added in connection with our kitchen. Revamped and redecorated items will be fourth coming in February and March, 1990. The recap of the walkway and the finish of the railing will be redone this Spring for safe attire. For those of you interested, the chair lift went thru a maintenance program and is in good working order. During freezing weather remember to be careful walking up the ramp and using the club steps.

Enjoy the BLYC, for it belongs to you.

Merry X-Mas & Happy New Year.
