I apologize for the poor resolution of the pictures of our new members in last month's Log. I've placed their pictures in this month's Log so that it will be easier for you to recognize them.

I would also like to announce the birth of our son, Drew Willison Kellogg, on February 21.

ENTERTAINMENT

Can you believe it? March already!! We have another night of Euchre scheduled for you card buffs on March fourteenth. For you gourmets, two of John's delicious Champagne Brunches are planned in March, one on the first and another on the 22nd. And then on Tuesday - yes, I said Tuesday - March seventeenth, grab your shillelagh, don your favorite Tam o'Shanter and bring your Irish sweetheart to the Wearin' of the Green party. Nancy and George "O'Pugh" will be hostin' you and Frick and Frack will be providin' the sweetest music this side of the Blarney stone. We promised the wee people a good turn out so don't miss this prelude to spring.

Our March Ice Breaker is planned for Friday, March twentieth and we are going to try something new as a mixer. It's called a Spring Madness party. Wear an unusual article of clothing such as a hat, tie, shoes or some other item - prizes will be awarded for the craziest - and come prepared for a night of fun and frolic. This is our next to last Ice Breaker, so don't miss it.

Coming up in April, the annual Crystal Ballroom party is scheduled on Saturday the fourth. It will have a "Prom Nite" theme and some fine entertainment in the form of Jim Frank's Band. Be sure to bring your "steady" to this classy affair. The last Ice Breaker of the season is brewing for the seventeenth of April and we're leaning toward something Western. More on this next month.

Don't forget the Ladies' Aux. Auction on the 25th of April. This looks to be an elegant affair and for a good cause. If you haven't offered up a gift donation for the auction and have something in mind, call Kay Oprandi. I'm sure she can squeeze you in.

JUNIOR SAILING

We have found a sailing coach for this year. He is Chad Headlee. Chad is a Junior Member of BLYC and took sailing lessons at BLYC when he was younger. Chad will be coaching our Junior Sailing Teams as well as teaching the sailing camps.

Speaking of sailing camp, the Registration Form for Sailing Camp is in this LOG. There is a change I would like to point out. The cost for grandchildren of members has been reduced to the same price as children of members. We are hoping this will stir some interest in our members to get their grandchildren interested in sailing & the BLYC.

Mark your calendar now. Junior Bay Week is July 27-30. Come up to Put-In-Bay and support our Junior Teams.

RENTALS, BAR & KITCHEN

Rental payments for docks, rooms, boat storage spaces, garages, lockers, and all other Club facilities subject to rental are due. Please make these rental payments immediately if you have not already done so.

I greatly appreciate the Trustee's decision to authorize the much needed rebuilding of the Area Eight docks. That decision should certainly enhance the boating enjoyment of Area Eight docks.

See ya at the Club.

HOUSE AND GROUNDS

The next time you're dining at the B.L.Y.C., take note of the recently painted woodwork and "refreshed" ceiling tiles. Mark your calendars now for SPRING WORK DAY, SUNDAY, APRIL 26, 1992. Be prepared for lots of fun projects!

Sailing Camp 1992

Junior Sailing camp is one of BLYC's biggest successes. Kids have fun learning to sail with other kids. Juniors, which includes all teenagers, must be at least nine years of age sometime during 1992 to register. Each participant must bring to camp his or her own life jacket, deck shoes and a swim suit.

While the enrollment deadline is the first day of class, it is best to enroll early to be assured a place during the week you prefer and to get more detailed information. The dates and times are on the registration form below.
