

Buckeye Lake Yacht Club

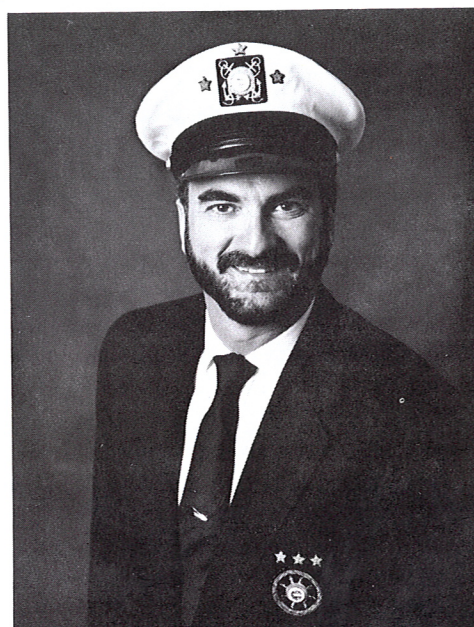

August 1992

FROM THE BRIDGE ☆ ☆ ☆

Just like the old days...

That is how things looked during the 1992 Interlake Champion ships held at B.L.Y.C. in July. With over forty boats entered and our being blessed with very high winds, it was a very impressive sight to behold, seeing all of those boats sailing down the lake at the same time. The event went very smoothly and the weather managed to cooperate with the race schedule most of the time. Our hats go off to Comm. George Fisher for overseeing all of the details of the event and also to the winner, Sjoerd Jan Vanderhorst of the Hoover Yacht Club. He sailed a very dominate series and won going away. It was very nice to hear all of the compliments from the sailors about what great facilities we have at B.L.Y.C. It was a very friendly group of people and a lot of fun was had by all who attended. We even got the Yacht Club a lot of publicity when on Tuesday, the Channel Six news crew came out and covered the action from my boat. Not to be outdone, Channel Four sent Cabbot Rae and a cameraman out on Wednesday and covered the racing from Rear Comm. Schilling's boat. The Yacht Club never looked better. With the success of the 1992 Regatta, the record setting attendance of the Junior Training Program and our involvement with the America's Cup Series, hopefully sailing will be staging a strong comeback at the club.

Commodore
Greg Miller

On the entertainment front, the Fourth of July Flyover ceremony was a big hit as usual. If you have missed this event you really should try to attend next year because it is very impressive. It is a great way to kick off the holiday, and seeing those jets fly over the club sure is something. We are very fortunate have our Comm. Bob Preston be able to arrange this show year after year and we all owe him a big thank you.

Our New Members' party was a big hit again this year. It is a good time to meet all of the new members who have joined the Yacht Club this past year and give them a chance to meet and make new friends. The weather was good and that enabled us to have the party outside and it was a lot of fun. We should all try to make new members feel at home when they come to the club, so if you see someone that you don't know, introduce yourselves to them. It will make the Yacht Club more enjoyable for all. We still have a lot of summer left so come out and enjoy your club often.

Greg

The Danger Brothers were great but now it's time to beat the doldrums of August with the most enjoyable party of the summer - the annual tropical fun night - The Luau. This year's party starts with free Mai-Pete cocktails at 6:30, followed by dinner at 8:00 and dancing under the stars from 9 'till mid-night to the music of the Pastels. For the details see the ad page for the Luau in this issue of the Log. So all you kahunas put on your favorite aloha shirt, latch on to your favorite wahine and join us at the club for a very special nite of fun.

Other events of the month include John's special Champagne Brunch on August the 2nd and again on the 16th. Of course, the pool will be in full swing all during the month, and, for all you boat buffs, The Annual Antique Boat Show on Friday thru Sunday, August 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

All in all, a great month of things going on at the club. See you there.

HOUSE AND GROUNDS

I hope all of you continue to enjoy The Club this summer as the flowers are really starting to take off and provide lots of color and cheer. I know of one young lady who really enjoyed the front flower bed, more for comfort than for the beauty. Mrs. Duck made her home there this spring and is now a proud mother of six ducklings. Buckeye Lake became their new home this weekend.

P.S. Special thanks to Dr. Frank Gabe for not only donating a pick-up load of mulch, but also helping put it down

Steve

Please note the by-law regarding children wearing life jackets on the island. See John Doneff if you are requesting that your child not wear a life jacket.

BLYC LADIES AUXILIARY

The meeting was called to order by President Dot Best. The Treasurer's report was read by Diane Koman and minutes of the last meeting were read by Jackie Harris.

Several guests were introduced and welcomed to the meeting.

Donna Hoover reported another successful raffle for "Basket of Booze". The profit from this project was $490 and the winner was Julie Cooper!

Our next fund-raiser will be the "Free Membership Drawing". Helen Waite of Helen Waite Realty volunteered to pay for printing cost for tickets - thanks Helen! They will be $5 each and purchased by members only.

Dot Best announced that sales tax is now being charged on items purchased from the Showcase.

The BLYC men decided against the purchase of an ice cream freezer; therefore, the ladies will not be selling ice cream on the porch at the wooden boat show. Please notice the latest purchase of the men for the porch - white chairs for everyone's comfort. What a difference they make!

Terry Kochensparger will head the Nominating Committee for the next election. Assisting will be Jan Kaylor and Joanne Martensen.

Thanks was given to the hostesses - Mary Lou Tussing and Margene Lambrecht and the raffle was held for the lovely centerpieces.

We enjoyed a presentation by Margie Milligan of Bon Voyage Travel Agency.

The next meeting will be held on August 12, 1992.
Cocktails at 11:30 - Luncheon at 12:30.
