ENTERTAINMENT

A big thanks to George and Kate O'Donnel for the work they did organizing and decorating the Club for the St. Patrick's Day party. The Irish buffet went over extremely well and everyone attending displayed the green! By the time you read this, the "Western Nite" party held on April 2, will probably will be history. I'm sure Jim and Jo Fedor will make this a memory maker. Make sure you keep Saturday, April 24 open and support the B.L.Y.C. Ladies' Auxiliary fund-raiser. I know (believe me) how much effort the women have put into this and how much we all benefit from their efforts.

We have two big concerts planned for the summer. Phil Dirt and the Dozers will be at the Club on Friday, June 18, and the Danger Brothers will entertain on Saturday, July 31. Both concerts will run from 8:00 p.m. until midnight. Tickets will go on sale for Phil Dirt Friday, April 9. Buy yours early so you don't get left out!

RACE AND REGATTA & JR. TRAINING

In addition to the Jr. Training for the Beginners, Intermediate and Advanced youth program this summer, the Club is considering proposing adult classes for both beginners and advanced. This class will be taught by Chad Headlee and Justin Chambers (the same instructors as for Jr. Training). See the registration form in this issue of the log.

Sailboats owned by the Club are two Thistles, two Optimists, and one Flying Junior. In order to have a full sailing fleet, the Club should acquire two more Flying Juniors and one more Optimist. This will give the Club two different fleets of three boats each and racing can be taught more effectively. Racing is pointless with less than three boats. If the Club Members want to promote a more active sailing program, these boats should be purchased. Time will tell!

Ruthie and I were recently in Florida. We called Bob & Fran Baughman in Fort Myers and ended up having a "Friday" night dinner with the following yacht club members that winter in Florida: Lloyd & Nora Ballenger; Charlie & Wanda Huffer; Wilber & Custis Wuellner; and Mac & Joan Wood. It was a very enjoyable evening at Ballenger's Restaurant in Fort Myers.
