FROM THE BRIDGE ☆☆☆

December, 2012 - Vol. 21, Issue 10

Commodore Gayle Fisher-Mulvey

Hello all! Hope you all have had a wonderful Thanksgiving! The Christmas season is fast approaching and there are some great events planned for you for the Holidays and winter months ahead. First, the "Adult" Christmas party is Saturday evening, December 15. It will be a great time with a jazz band. Be sure to make your reservation.

Second, the Children's Christmas party, sponsored by the Auxiliary, is Sunday, December 16. Great time will be had by all especially with a visit from Santa!

Speaking of the Christmas spirit, I want to give a shout out to Joe and Joni Campbell, along with Greg Miller and the rest of the crew who provide, on behalf of the Club, a heart warming Christmas party and gifts for local children in the Buckeye Lake community. I am certain they are still accepting donations from Club members and the gifts are so appreciated by the children.

The New Year's Eve party will be the usual blow out of a great time and please make reservations early as this event really fills up! Hope to see everyone there.

The Speaker Series will be another great success, I am sure, as Governor Luttenberger is planning a great line up of speakers.

Please keep the Club in mind throughout the Holiday season and the winter months. We'll keep the fireplace going for you.

See you soon, and Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

PLEASE NOTE:

The Log will not be published during the next 2 months. The next issue will be March 2013. Check www.buckeyelakeyc.com for event updates.

The Board and Trustees have agreed budget for 2013 and one of the areas for savings will be the January and February Logs. It costs the club about $1,400 per month to publish and send the Log, our next edition will be published in March 2013. Please check our web site www.buckeyelakeyc.com for regular updates. Our communication team is making progress with the first three goals near completion. I have included our Top Ten communications Goals for 2013:

1. Review web site, update/refresh as needed
2. Facilitate regular meetings for the communications team
3. Add Club member directory to web site

Ahoy! Well, most of the boats are in dry dock now ready for a long winter's nap. A sad time for most boaters and sailors to be sure. However, we don't want to put our minds in dry dock as well. So, as mentioned in the previous log, we are progressing with our winter sailing series in an attempt to enhance our knowledge of sailing and enjoy a few hours of camaraderie on a Sunday afternoon. The following list represents a tentative syllabus of sessions starting in January:

- 4 rules sessions covering signals, right of way, etc. by Commodore Steve Harris
- Tactics – maybe with the help of our Hoover brethren (and sistren), such as Matt Fisher and Scott Savage, who did an outstanding job last year
- “Sailing with Family” session
- Sailing charters/cruises – Dr. John Van Gilder, who has chartered numerous sailings on Chesapeake Bay, has agreed to share some of his knowledge about the ins and outs of such trips, as well as skill levels or certifications needed
- Sailing DVRs from US Sailing: Sailing in Heavy Weather; The Art of Racing Sailing; Race Boat Crewing; Cruising Florida's Waterways
- Race Management Training – an all day training again with Commodore Steve Harris

Communications

Governor Paul Sanzone

- (your next invoice will have login info)
4. Develop a master Calendar - updated with events, hours, parties, etc.
  5. Create an online location to enhance internal board communication and

- collaboration (BLYCboard.com)
6. Add a Facebook page — casual style with goal to inform members of current events, impromptu updates, specials, etc.
  7. Provide a simple way to communicate the boards/clubs goals and our progress towards those goals
  8. Enhance ways to capture the voice of the member, town hall meetings, suggestion box, surveys, etc.
  9. Add capability to capture and add member activity and event photos to the web site, Facebook page and Log
  10. Review/enhance communication tools for future consideration — club email, blogs, wiki, twitter, IM, webcams, etc.

Race & Regatta

Governor Dave Lawrence

Everyone is invited – sailors, crew, junior sailors, and anyone who has an interest in sailing. We have a directory of email addresses of our sailors, so we will email the schedule when it is finalized. If you want to be included, but are not currently in our directory, you can go to the Race and Regatta page of the BLYC website and click the “Subscribe” link (thanks to Steve Harris). The dates and topics will be posted as they are firmed up.

US Sailing: As many of you know, US Sailing and its predecessor, North American Yacht Racing Union, has been around since the late 1800s. As a member, you are supporting efforts to keep racing fair, motivate the next generation of sailors, and enable those who might not otherwise have the opportunity to go sailing. In addition to supporting programs that impact you and inspire others, your membership includes the Racing Rules Book, savings on products like Sperry Top-Siders (25%), discounts at the US Sailing online store, and many more too numerous to mention. I encourage all sailors to join (there is also US Powerboating for boaters), as this reflects well on the club and you as a sailor and crew. Our own Commodore Steve Harris is on several committees with US Sailing, and Tom Hubbell, who sails out of Hoover, was recently elected President.

Snowball Revisted: There is a correction for second place in the Interlake Class. Matt Fisher was listed as the second place finisher when in fact it was Jeff Clark. My apologies to both gentlemen. I had not received the official results at the time of printing. Lesson learned!

As I will end all writings of R&R with lines from a sailing song, I was reminded of the passing of a number of members and sailors, which led to these lines from The Captain and his Kid by Jimmy Buffett:

He died about a month ago while winter filled the air

And though I cried I was so proud to love a man so rare

He's somewhere on the ocean now, that's where he ought to be

With one hand on the starboard rail he's wavin' back at me.

Sail On!

Dock and Rentals 2013 goals

Auxiliary

The holiday season is here - time for parties and celebration! As yacht club members we are fortunate to have a wonderful club where we can do exactly that - celebrate good times with great friends and family. At our November meeting we heard from Commodore Mulvey about her plans to make our club an even better place. The Auxiliary looks forward to partnering with the Board on their upcoming renovation projects to our club.

This month we have Christmas parties for the young and young at heart! December 15th is the Adult Christmas Party. Light hors d'oeuvres will be served to our members at the beginning of the evening. The Children's Party will be held the following day on December 16th. This is always one of our most popular events of the year. Bring your children and grandchildren to visit with Santa and his elves. His sleigh will be flying in around 2pm!

We have many fun activities planned during the party but we still need your help! A party just isn't a party without cookies!! Please consider donating some cookies for the party. Store bought or home baked - all donations will be greatly appreciated. Donations can be brought to the club before or during the party.

A major part of the spirit and focus of the BLYC Auxiliary is to give back to our local community. At this time of year many of our four legged friends are forgotten and left out in the cold. The Auxiliary is putting together a Christmas Box for the Licking County Humane Society. The society needs many things from treats and toys for the animals to bleach and paper towels for their facility. The box will be in the area by the coat racks through December 16th so please bring your gifts when you next come to the club.

We hope everyone enjoys this wonderful time of year!

Happy Holidays from your Auxiliary Board.

EXCURSIONS PLANNING SESSION:

Fall Work Day

The America's Cup

This past month, I had the opportunity to travel to San Francisco as I-LYA's delegate to the US SAILING Annual Meeting. The city is abuzz with preparations for the upcoming America's Cup. The "America's Cup World Series" was held there in October and the Louis Vuitton Cup (Challengers' Series) and America's Cup Regattas will be held there next summer & fall. One may think that "pond sailors" from Buckeye Lake couldn't ever dream of sailing in a regatta so renowned. But, that's not true... BLYC has our own America's Cup Champion.

In August, 1851 a "radical looking schooner" sailed past Queen Victoria's Royal Yacht from which she was watching the races. After it passed, she asked one of her attendants, "Who is second?" "Your Majesty, there is no second," came the reply. That schooner, America, from the fledgling New York Yacht Club won the day, beating the best that the British could offer and won the Royal Yachting Squadron's 100 Guinea Cup. Thus was born what is now the oldest trophy in international sport. The United States held the trophy from that day until 1983 - the longest winning streak ever in any sport - and thus it came to be known as "America's Cup." Beginning with that 1983 loss to Australia, interest in taking back the Cup grew throughout the country, but notably to us, that interest really grabbed a young man from our Club.

Mike Hein II, son of Commodore Mike & Joan Hein, began his sailing career at BLYC at the age of 6. Throughout his youth, he raced on our Junior Sailing Team - including several Junior Bay Weeks. In 1975, at the suggestion of Commodore George Fisher, his parents bought him a Lightning and his racing career began. In 1982, at the age of 18, Mike and his crew won the Junior Lightning North American Championships. The next year, he competed as crew in the 1983 World Championships in Italy, finishing 5th. It was during this time that Dennis Conner was putting together his crew to take back the Cup. Not knowing Dennis, Mike did what any ambitious young sailor might do - he got himself a job at San Diego Yacht Club - Dennis Conner's home club - as the head sailboat racing instructor.

Mike went on to crew for Conner in 1985 on Stars & Stripes. The boat was so fast that they finished their trials ahead of schedule and ended up with several weeks off. It was during that layover that Mike met Bill Koch, owner of the 81' Maxi racing yacht

Looking Aft

P/C Steve Harris, Club Historian

Matador. Mike crewed for Koch, sailing all over the world and crewing in six Maxi World Championships including the two-time winning crew of Matador<sup>2</sup> in 1990 & 1991. In 1992, Bill Koch put together a syndicate to battle Dennis Conner in the Defender Series to race for the U.S.'s defense of the America's Cup. Mike Hein, who began his sailing career on our little lake in the middle of America, was part of that crew.

In 1991, leading up to the Cup, BLYC Commodore Jim McBride challenged the membership to help raise money for the campaign. The membership came through in a big way, with more than 80% of the members donating. As a result, BLYC received a half-boat model of the yacht Koch's syndicate would sail in defense of the Cup, America<sup>3</sup>, and during the America's Cup, the BLYC Burgee was displayed on the transom. For several years, this model was on display behind the BLYC bar.

Sailing with such greats in the sport as helmsman Buddy Melges and tactician Dave Dellenbaugh, Koch's America<sup>3</sup> defeated Conner and went on to defend the Cup against the Italian challengers on Il Moro di Venezia. Following the win, live on ESPN, Mike proposed to his girlfriend Annie, to whom he's been married since 1993.

Initially, Mike and Annie Hein settled down in San Diego, but sailors love the sea and they soon decided that living in the 'rat-race' of the city wasn't their cup of tea. After three years, they sold their house and cars and put their belongings in storage to go sailing on two private cruising yachts through the end of the century. Mike did the annual world championships and still raced professionally through 1999.

In 2000, Mike and Annie moved to New Zealand to oversee the construction of a 130' private yachtfisher, Mea Culpa. This was cutting edge technology. Utilizing all their experience gained from the America's Cup, building other boats, maintaining them, working with designers, architects, and the shipyard, Mike and Annie completed the build by the end of 2003. As a trained chef, Annie was in charge of the interior fitout and Mike did the engineering and exterior.

In 2003, their daughter Abigail was born in Sydney, Australia and in 2005 they were blessed with a son, Maxwell, born in the Gold Coast, Australia, where they are living today. Currently, Mike is still the vessel's Captain, having sailed over 111,000 nautical miles on her own bottom, traveling in the Pacific, Southern, and Atlantic Oceans as well as the Caribbean Sea.

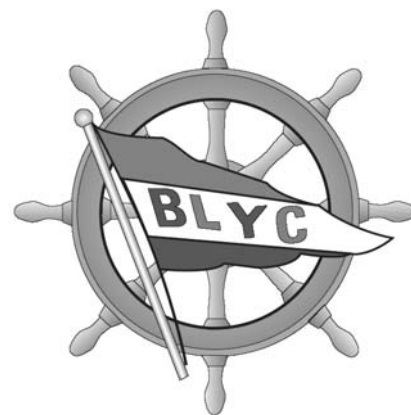

When asked how did a sailor from Ohio get to where he is today, Mike replied, "First and foremost, I thank God for His guidance. I had a wonderful upbringing at BLYC, with incredibly supportive parents. My entire family, including Commodore Bob and Doris Dye and my sisters Tracey and Barb, supported me. The Fisher, Dressel and Petersilge families not only challenged me, but taught me how to sail. After every race, we always debriefed on the dock."

What about advise for others? "Set goals for yourself and never give up. Keep striving and figure out how to get there. Others are willing and able to help, but it's simply up to you to go and do it. Dream the biggest dream you can and go achieve it, take the set backs as a learning process and go on. Share all the knowledge you have with others, to help them become better sailors and persons. This will enable them to challenge you to get better yourself! Also, go travel now, go live your dreams now, don't wait as one never knows what tomorrow may bring."

For more information on the current America's Cup, visit www.americascup.com

Additionally, as a part of this year's BLYC Speakers Series, P/C Steve Harris will be presenting his talk, The America's Cup: A Brief History and 2013 on January 31st

The half-model of America<sup>3</sup> presented to BLYC will be brought out of storage and again put on display through the duration of this year's America's Cup.
