COMMODORE
DONALD DICK

Welcome Spring!

It sure felt like winter was never going to end, but here we are — Spring! This year, that means getting our boats in the water and getting back to "normal" at Buckeye Lake. We are already seeing an increase in activity around the lake this year and its sure to be a busy exciting summer for both BLYC and the entire lake community. We're ready!

As you have likely seen, there's been a lot of activity going on around the Club lately. Complete Marine Construction is making great progress on the replacement of our Area 8 docks and Cottage Maintenance is beginning work on our Eastport dock expansion and the seawall repair on the northwest part of the island. For the first time in several years we will be able to fully enjoy boating on the lake and the Club is ready with new, expanded docking facilities for our members. Contact Rear Commodore Ames if you would like to rent a dock this season.

While the season may still seem awhile off, it will be here before you know it. Your Boards of Governors and Trustees have been working hard this "off season" to not only keep the Club running well, but also to prepare for the fun and excitement that is sure to come with summer. Please join us next month on Sunday, May 5th at 2:00 pm for the Semi-Annual Meeting of the Club. This meeting is for ALL members of BLYC and is your opportunity to get a status update on the Club, hear of our plans for the coming year, and make your voice heard. This is your Club! We want all of you to participate in its governance and development going forward.

I hope to see all of you at the Commodores Ball later this month. I know that Vice Commodore Mark & Anna Pyle have put together another great event. Remember, this event which honors our Commodores, is open to all members. We'd love for you to join us.

Finally, If you haven't already heard, BLYC has been selected to host the kick-off regatta for the 2019 I-LYA Travelers Series for junior sailing. This event will be held on Saturday, June 1st and will undoubtedly be a great kick off to the season and a great way to feature both BLYC and Buckeye Lake. We anticipate 70+ boats traveling from all over the region. It's going to take a lot of volunteers and support boats to pull this together. If you're interested in helping, please let Governor Bruckelmeyer know. It's sure to be a fun day!

See you at the Club!

HOUSE & GROUNDS

- Governor Charlie Campbell

April is the month of showers to bring May flowers. But, lately its been March with the rain.

As you have probably noticed, we've had some issues lately with standing water in the parking lot. Our pump station that removes water from our property to the Buckeye Lake Village storm drain failed. We have taken corrective actions to better manage the flow of water and are repairing the pump so things should be back to normal for us soon.

Our new steps are "forming" up and soon you will be coming up the club hill with ease. The entryway project is progressing as well.

As I keep mentioning that Spring Work Day is quickly approaching and, as always, we need all who can spare time on Sunday April 28th, 8:00 am to noon. No expertise needed — your hands will fit any long handled work tool or rag. There is a sign-up sheet posted in the bar area. Lunch will be provided to all who volunteer. Come join in the fun and help get our Clubhouse and grounds ready for the upcoming summer season at Buckeye Lake!

House & Grounds will be starting a project to clean up the Eastport boatyard the first week of April. If you have items stored there, please take a look at them to see if a little sprucing up wouldn't help. It is a storage area not a junk yard. Be proud of our club and the Eastport amenity.

Since I am writing this from the sunny beaches of South Florida to which I need to be on...

I bid you be safe

BAR & KITCHEN

- Vice Commodore Mark Pyle

Spring is in the air and it's great to see an increase in activity taking place along the Buckeye Lake shore and around the Club! This month we will be busy hosting Supper Club on Fridays, Thirsty Thursday on April 18th, Children's Easter Egg Hunt on April 20th, Easter Brunch and the Commodores Ball on Saturday, April 27th. All of these events have been well attended in the past so please make reservations early to allow us to better plan and serve you. For those who have not attended the Commodores Ball in the past, it is a formal affair open to all members to honor our Commodore, Donald Dick, and to recognize the Past Commodores who have served BLYC. This year's Commodores Ball will feature an Italian celebration theme with a traditional multicourse menu. The reservation cutoff for the Commodores Ball will be Wednesday, April 24th.

Recently Chef Josh updated the menu for spring by changing up several of the daily specials, introducing a few new items, and bringing back some old favorites. Take a look at our new offerings and give one a try. Our service manager, Paul Eblin, will be staffing up for the summer season this month in anticipation of a return to the Club attendance levels we experienced prior to the dam project. If you are aware of individuals who are looking for seasonal work, please refer them to the employment selection under the "Our Club" tab on the BLYC website. In addition, we will be posting openings for servers and bussers on Indeed.com where applicants can also apply online.

We are introducing a member comment card this month which you should see in your billing folders when you receive your bill for your meal or beverages. The cards are simple to complete and will let us know what we need to continue doing well and where we can make improvements. We are also planning to place a lock box where the cards can be dropped if you'd rather comment privately — the location is still under evaluation. In addition, the form will be available on the website and the submission will be directed to the Bar & Kitchen Governor and service manager. This is obviously a new communication option for members and we anticipate some ongoing tweaks as we implement the process to evaluate the responses and communicate the results to the managers and staff.

- Governor Barb Hein

Time flies when you are having fun at the cClub! A quarter of the year is already gone but we have more fun coming. I am working on an organized sailing opportunity for those who would like to go out on the water on a sailboat. Once details are confirmed I will get information to you.

Think about the month of May and having your family photo taken. Our club is preparing for a new directory and links for sign up time slots will be coming soon. The first photo shoot will be 4 days, Wednesday May 29th through Saturday June 1st. Think about what works for your family and mark your calendar. If you would like to volunteer your time to help I am appreciative.

Happy spring and I look forward to talking to you

RACE & REGATTA

- Governor Dave Paligo

Sailing — whether you are day sailing, cruising, or racing — is a very demanding sport. To do well, we need a solid foundation. The “Pyramid of Sailing” is a great structure for most of our development. In order to develop, we must work our way up through the three levels.

First level we have Boat Handling.

This is the fundamental requirement of sailing.

Second level is Boat Speed.

Boat handling will make boat speed a lot easier to develop.

Top level is Tactics.

Tactics and strategy are almost impossible without good boat handling and speed.

Boat Handling involves everything from being able to get your boat in and out of its slip to mastering a simple tack or hoisting a sail. You need to be able to operate your boat in tight situations at starts, mark roundings, other boats or obstructions. You need to know your limitations and work on broadening them as you develop your expertise. The ability to handle your boat with confidence will make it a lot easier to judge what you can and can't do.

Practice to race, not race for practice. As a team, you need to practice all the drills — tacking, gybing, drops, peels, sail changes, and MOB's as much as you can. As part of this practice you should develop and improve on why and how you do things. Timing your maneuvers in practice will help you decide how much time you need to allow when racing.

Boat Speed — Once you have the fundamentals of boat handling down, you're ready to add more finesse to maximize boat speed. Your knowledge of your boat's behavior will help your starts with the ability to accelerate or slow down. You will be able to work on sail and rig trim, better steering techniques, positioning your boat better, crew weight (placement), efficient tacks, gybes, reading puffs and wind shifts. Better boat handling will always result in better boat speed.

Tactics — “Boat speed makes you a tactical genius.” Buddy Melges, a very competitive sailor once said, “Start first, round first, and finish first.” — an old adage which still rings true. There is nothing worse than doing tactics on a boat lacking speed. It is virtually impossible to find a passing lane when your competition is sailing away from you. The art of tactics has quite a different aspect from boat handling and boat speed in that it revolves around how we react to circumstances like wind variations, tidal currents, and other boats as they change. The ability to do an efficient tack, a close slam dunk, or a quick gybe will enhance our tactical options dramatically. Tactics is very much like a chess game — you need to be thinking 2-4 moves ahead of your opponent.

So, to improve your performance on the water, remember the pyramid of sailing. Start off with developing your boat handling and the rest will flow from there. There are no shortcuts — the only way to climb a pyramid is from the foundation and work your way up.

As part of your “Pyramid of Sailing” education, it is also imperative to know the sailing rules we race under. I encourage everyone to get a rule book and as a minimum study Part 2 “When Boats Meet.” With your crew, learn a rule a week — not only is it educational, it will be FUN.

Prep well, sail fast, sail safe.

FINANCE COMMITTEE

BLYC received the second and final installment of the Lakes in Economic Distress grant of $5,000 recently. The grant proceeds will be used to offset general operating expenses as provided in the grant application to the State of Ohio. The Committee reviewed the lease agreement provided by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources to cover the pool deck and portion of covered docks encroaching on State property, which is similar to the leases offered to North Bank and West Bank residents who have encroachments.

At this writing, annual dues, capital improvement and other fees along with dock charges mailed in January and February should have been paid. For all who have already paid in full we appreciate your timely support. For dock charges mailed out in March, please return those payments as soon as possible. If you are having difficulty meeting your payment obligations timely it is expected that you reach out to Rebecca in the Club office to make payment arrangements and you should also anticipate the application of a monthly finance charge.

Thank you to all members who have renewed their membership and those joining us anew, the future of the Club is secure with your continued support!

Parking... 50¢

Well, not anymore. Few members have been around long enough to remember that BLYC hasn't always owned our parking lot. In fact, for much of the Club's history, members had to pay to park when coming to the Club. However, thirty years ago, in 1989, that all changed.

In the early years of Buckeye Lake, the property along North Bank, along with Watkins and the other islands, were owned by and leased from the state. Much of the other property in the area was owned by and leased from a few families. People would lease lots to build cottages for their Buckeye Lake get-aways. Still today, we refer to many of the neighborhoods that now comprise the Village of Buckeye Lake by the names of those early owners — Bounds, Myer, Neel, Carlin, and Rosebraugh. The North Shore launch area of the State Park, Crane Lake, North Shore Landing, and BLYC's Eastport property were all part of the old Buckeye Lake Amusement Park. What is now the BLYC parking lot was owned by the Rosebraugh family — one of the earliest pioneer families to settle this area.

The Rosebraughs were a part of BLYC since the early days. William "Bill" Rosebraugh grew up here and as a young boy played on the island when it was little more than a sandbar with a few lonely willow trees on it. As an adult, he and his family lived in the two-story house (now owned by the Club) at the entrance to our parking lot. Like many of our neighbors, he was frequently called upon for supplies, maintenance work, and other necessary tasks around the Club as most of our members were residents of the larger cities of central Ohio and only "visitors" to the lake. He was an honorary member of the Club and active up until his death in 1965. Sometimes referred to as the "Granpa of BLYC," Bill enjoyed the life at the Club and was a fixture at Club events. In particular, he liked to watch the sailboat races and enjoyed watching his grandson, David Boling, participate and improve in the weekly races. Following his death, David donated a trophy to the Club in his honor. The Board decided that it should be awarded annually to the "Most Improved Sailor" in the BLYC fleet. Although for a number of years it has gone unawarded, it will be awarded again as we resume regular sailing this season. Bill Rosebraugh's daughter Alice also grew up at the lake and around BLYC and its members. She spent most of her life as a care giver for her family and also lived in the two-story house. She managed the Rosebraugh addition and owned and operated the BLYC parking lot. The entrance to the parking lot then was what is now the driveway to the two-story house. Across the driveway from the home was a small garage. I recall that structure, facing the drive, having a split door and presume that early on it was used as something of a "toll booth" at the entrance to the parking lot. I know from members who were around in the 1980's that in later years there was a can, hanging on a nail, into which you were expected to deposit 50¢ upon your entrance to the lot. Old December issues of the Log frequently reported that parking would be free on New Year's Eve — Ms. Rosebraugh's Holiday gift to the members of BLYC.

Alice Rosebraugh

Commodore Foster wrote in 2006...

If you didn't pay, perhaps because you didn't have the change, many times Alice would come walking out of her house into the lot to tell you that you were supposed to pay. She would also complain to the governors about those who didn't pay. And it often happened that, after you put your quarter in the can, if you looked in the rear view mirror as you proceeded into the parking lot, you would see Alice walking out to get the money.

As the years went by, there was little question that she would sell the parking lot to the Club. Commodore Foster spent quite a bit of time with Ms. Rosebraugh in her later years both learning about the history of the Club and the lake and also negotiating the sale of the property to BLYC...

I was the principal negotiator with her and remember sitting several times talking to her in her kitchen and then periodically reporting back to the Board on the state of the negotiations. It took months. We also asked a few other long time members who knew and were on good terms with her to talk to her from time to time because negotiations went slowly and we didn't want to anger Alice Rosebraugh.

She was a very nice older lady. She intended that because of its location and the long historical relationship with BLYC. The only question was the price, fair to her heirs and fair to BLYC. When we closed the purchase, with great legal assistance from Commodore George Fisher, the can immediately came down and disappeared into history.

That was thirty years ago. Alice Rosebraugh was 80 years old. She later moved to a retirement village in Newark and passed in 2006 at the age of 97. Many improvements to the parking lot would follow. In the early 1990s, the Club constructed the "new" entrance as we know it today. Having long been a gravel lot, it was finally paved in 1999. The club, having purchased most of the old Rosebraugh property behind the Club, purchased the final parcel — the westernmost part of the "overflow" lot — in 2000.

What ever became of Alice's can hanging on a nail? That would be a unique and interesting piece of Club history to display. It is forever lost, but as our lake community continues to change, its memory is a reminder of a different, maybe simpler, time at Buckeye Lake.
