COMMODORE
BRUCE AMES

It just seems to keep coming!

Just when things were starting to seem "normal" again... I know we'll all get through this, but boy it's tough! As you are aware, with the recent increase in the spread of COVID-19, we're scrambling again. Currently, per state orders, we have to close by 10:00 pm each night. As such, last call will now be at 9:30 pm. We ask that everyone leave the island by 10:00 pm. There appears to be hope on the horizon with new treatments and vaccines coming, but we're all going to have to work together to get there.

I cannot stress enough the importance of following all social distancing requirements and the wearing of masks. If you aren't actively eating or drinking, and any time you leave your seat, WEAR YOUR MASK! As of now, we are still able to remain open and serve our members. We need to work together to keep it that way.

We understand that, right now, not everyone is comfortable with in person dining. Keep in mind that, just as we did in the spring, we are continuing to offer Curbside To-Go takeout. Help us help you by having your favorite BLYC meals available and help support our staff by keeping them working. Inside dining is still available and we invite you to join us if you can. We are taking extra precautions to maintain proper distancing and to clean and sanitize on a continual basis. Please join us at your Club.

Things have been understandably slow around the Club lately. This is particularly difficult for our staff. Both lost working hours and lost tips are having an impact on them. I believe that we have one of the best staffs we've had at the Club in years! We don't want to lose them! Please use the Club as much as you are comfortable and able, and please be generous in showing your appreciation to the staff. They are a part of our BLYC family!

Finally, to all of our BLYC family, whether joining us on the island or wherever your travels take you, please remain safe and follow the guidelines we've been given. COVID-19 has struck a number of our members, families, and friends in recent weeks and so far we have been very fortunate with the outcomes. Please — stay safe, take care of yourselves and always remember that we are in this together.

Because of your efforts...

We will get through this — as a FAMILY!

DOCKS & RENTALS

- Governor Greg Tobias

What a beautiful fall this has been and many of you have been stretching the season out as long as possible. Despite the headwinds of the pandemic, progress at the club continues. The jet ski docks are progressing and will be available for the 2021 season. For the next year, I will be contacting all members that are requesting docks and keep them up to date on availability and the prioritized list. Due to the reduced use of the club during these trying times, I plan on making all of this information available on our web site. As always, please don't hesitate to contact me, Toby Tobias, with any questions or concerns relating to docks, storage, and garage rentals.

Please stay safe and enjoy the holidays to the fullest !

Happy Holidays!

Thanksgiving may have been a different way of celebrating this year but I hope that everyone had the opportunity to reflect and give thanks for those that are special in their lives. It is now time to turn our attention to the hustle and bustle of the holiday season. It is a time of year to be with family and friends and spread holiday cheer. We hope that you have the opportunity to spend some time with your BLYC family at any of the holiday events planned on the December calendar.

The safety and health of our staff and our Club members are very important to the Flag Officers and the Board of Governors. The staff works very hard to keep our Club clean and sanitized for the members to enjoy. With the cold weather and only having indoor dining,

I am looking into purchasing a HEPA air purifier for the Club. With the uptick in COVID-19 cases in Ohio, the Governor has reissued the mask order. Please wear a mask when not eating or drinking while you are at the Club. If you are not feeling well, stay home and take care of yourself.

Again, I want to stress the importance of when you want to dine at the Club please make sure that you make a reservation. It is easy to do online and it really helps us to plan and maintain appropriate staffing and inventory levels. As always, we will seek to accommodate our Club members wishing to dine with us, but the members who made reservations will be given first priority. With all of the events happening this month at the Club it will be busy. So, make your reservations early and often.

I want to thank everyone who have been giving feedback after dining at the Club. We are hearing good things about how the staff is doing. Please keep the comments coming. If you made a reservation online, you should automatically receive an email to thank you for dining at the Club and a link to fill out the feedback form. I would greatly appreciate it if you would leave a way for me to contact you. I have been contacting members to thank them for their feedback and to listen to their concerns. My goal is to make sure that all of the members have a pleasurable experience at your BLYC.

I would like to wish everyone a very joyous holiday season — Merry Christmas and I hope everyone will have a very safe and fun new year. I hope to see you at the Club this holiday season!

Cheers!

HOUSE & GROUNDS

- Vice Commodore Charlie Campbell

Another month in the history of the Yacht Club and then another Year will be starting. Amazing how time doesn't slow for anything. Just 2 years ago, we were watching as they built a new dam for Buckeye Lake and now we are enjoying the benefit of a secure water playground. Since 1953 look how much our club has grown. WOW — what a record!! Although the coronavirus, C19 as it's called, has impacted the everyday lives, in some way, of every Ohioan and our fellow citizens across the good ole USA, we at the club have managed to push forward. Keep up the wearing of masks, washing your hands frequently, and maintain safe distancing no matter where you roam. At the club we take all these precautions seriously. Keeping the club safe for our members, staff and visitors is our number one priority.

If you haven't noticed, the rear basin work is moving rapidly towards completion. Although we had a few glitches, we have kept on schedule and the outcome is as planned. Hopefully, by spring, we will be renting those slips designated just for small water craft. And yes, there is always planned room for our members who just stop by the club for a snack to park their jet ski, canoe, kayak or small sailboat.

We are working on enclosing the porch with see-through screens and the use of patio heaters. This project is in the format stage and anyone with ideas or wants to help get this moving forward contact the House & Grounds Governor. (He always needs help)

As always, parking is at a premium. It is our club, each member pays part of their membership to park on our lot. As Governor of House & Grounds, I have strived to ensure each member has a place to park. But, it is inevitable that those visiting the dam feel NO PARKING except members doesn't apply to them. Why should it? Its only one space and I won't be there long. "Not long" means all day to some. I have been working on a gate system for over two years. It is now time to start putting together an entry system that will do for today and provide adequate opportunities for future upgrades without completely changing our beginning system. You will be kept informed on this, but be prepared to see a change in how we enter the parking lot.

Winter means things can be slippery. Please, when it rains, sleets, snows, or just gets misty be mindful of walking on the bridge to the club. Hold on to the hand rail and walk slowly. The wood on the bridge becomes slippery when damp or wetter. The bridge does not belong to the club so changing the foot surface is up to ODNR.

The club will be closed, TBD, just after Christmas for more floor replacement. I want to thank those who helped in taking down the band tent.

Stay Safe & Stay Strong!

COMMUNICATIONS

- Governor Barb Hein

Thank you to Dr. Keith Crompton for sharing...

The Sayre Brothers

Prologue — During the mid-40's, my mother contracted TB and temporarily moved to New Mexico. My Dad was a commercial traveler and traveled a lot in the summertime. I appealed to my Dad to let me stay at our room at the yacht club rather than in Columbus with our housekeeper and he miraculously agreed. So rather than having two parents, or one parent, I had 20 or 30 who were all BLYC members and their wives. I will never understand why they were so nice to me! The same goes for the folks at Sayre Bros.

Anyway, I was able to get a "job" at the Sayre Brothers. Bud Sayre's crew at the time consisted of Skeeter Sayre, Jim Slocum, and the two Barcuses. Skeeter was old, wiry, and slight. He probably did not top 120 lbs. He either usually or always had a roll your own cigarette hanging from the corner of his mouth, and his sleeves rolled up high, probably to display his biceps. Even though slight he was still strong. At the time all the hoists were chain, even those which lifted the boats over the tow path. Skeeter could pull on the chains as well and long as the others. He lived in the apartment above the workshop with Blanche Sayre (I think she was Skeeter's brother's widow). I only heard Skeeter complain about Blanche once. He said if the radio were too loud she would turn the tuning dial off station rather than lower the volume. There was another Blanche Sayre, who was Bud's sister. She married Gene Miller and they lived in the cottage just East of the Yacht Club ramp. Gene was active in aeronautics — I don't know as an amateur or professional.

Bud was just back from the service. He had been in the Pacific theater as a mechanic; repairing battle damaged equipment. He had a gold crown on his front tooth that he had gotten from a street dentist in Japan. It remained until he got involved with Zenna, whom he married after Fran died. He never spoke hatefully of his service experience. I was amazed how well he handled all phases of the marina. As a sidebar, he knew the multiplication tables through 15 — how about that! That summer, he was chasing Fran whom he later married. I thought Bud was an absolutely wonderful person who could have done better. In my kid's eyes she looked OK but had a very demanding personality. Maybe she just didn't like me. In the refinishing and repair shop was Lloyd Barcus and his son Fritz. Fritz had also just returned from the service and never spoke disparagingly of his time either. They were both very skilled at refinishing and hull repair. They endlessly sanded the bare wood with sanders which would isolate back and forth only, rather in circles. This was before random orbital sanders and the sanders of the day would leave circles which would always be visible when the wood was stained. They never used masking tape — edging bottom paint and boot top paint all by hand. That summer Fritz was dating Jeannie. They eventually went over to Indiana where she was from, and got married. I never saw Jeannie again. I don't know what happened. Later, Lloyd and Fritz became skilled in fiberglass hull repair, however they certainly preferred the woodies.

RACE & REGATTA

- Governor Bill Collinson

While October 31st had most people thinking about Halloween, the sailors at BLYC participated in our first annual Haul Out Event!

On that date, five boats and crew got together to help each other take the sailboats out of the water, remove the sails, drop the masts, and prepare the boats for the winter sleep. While chilly in the morning, it warmed up due to abundant sunshine which make the task more enjoyable.

Following the work detail, the participants enjoyed a social beverage at the Club and discussed the highlights of the past season.

Haul out day was so successful that the participants decided that we should mirror the activity with a "Put in Day" in the spring at which we will all help each other get our boats set up for the upcoming season. The tentative dates is April 17, weather permitting.

I would ask all of our crews to reach out to other sailors in the area and encourage them to participate in our racing activities next year.

Until next time...

BLYC Historian

The Father of Buckeye Lake

Our Club, like most, is adorned with a wide variety of historical pictures, plaques and trophies. For most of us, they've become so commonplace that we walk by with little thought as to their significance. One, which I'm sure we've all seen, hangs in the dining room and reads as follows...

IN MEMORIAM

HON. GEORGE H. WATKINS
PRESIDENT

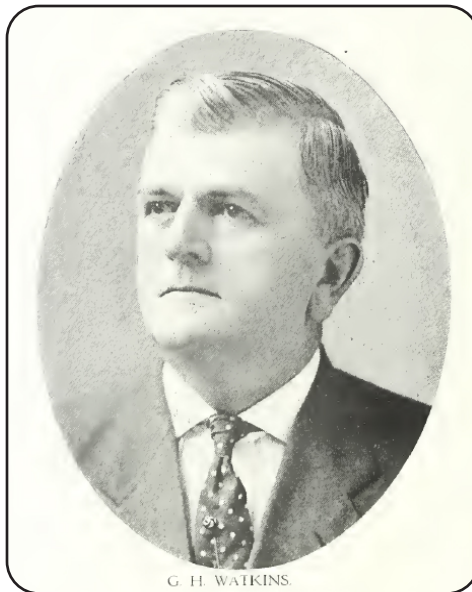

STATE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS
1906 – 1910

ERECTED BY MEMBERS OF BUCKEYE LAKE YACHT CLUB AND OTHER FRIENDS IN MEMORY OF HIS SERVICES AS THE FATHER AND PROMOTER OF IMPROVEMENTS AT BUCKEYE LAKE

But, other than that small memorial description, who was George Watkins? Why did BLYC honor him by naming our island after him?

George Watkins was a canal man. Born and raised near Portsmouth, Ohio, he spent much of his career working on the Ohio-Erie Canal, eventually becoming Canal Superintendent. The last canal boats passed through what was then the Licking Summit Reservoir in the late 1890's and the former canals and reservoir became a hodge-podge of semi-public water supply, waste disposal, and flood control. In 1906, Watkins was elected President of Ohio's State Board of Public Works. In addition to other duties, he was charged with the maintenance of over 300 miles of the former canal system and its reservoirs – much of it in disrepair – including the Licking Summit Reservoir. Fortunately for Watkins, he found an enthusiastic group of Columbus businessmen who wanted to form – of all things – a yacht club in central Ohio... and he knew just the location!

As the founding members of BLYC set to work writing by-laws, building a clubhouse and establishing themselves as a "real" yacht club, Watkins used his (and their) influence in Columbus to spur improvements at what had now come to be known as "Buckeye Lake." Throughout the Club's early years, state workers replaced the old, wooden waste-weir with one of concrete, returned locks, sluices, and gates to serviceable condition, removed many underwater hazards, and repaired considerable portions of the north embankment. To the delight of the fledgling yacht club, the old reservoir was quickly becoming a "real" lake. Over the coming years, further improvements at the lake brought both Club members and visitors alike. Buckeye Lake had become a destination, the Club prospered and all due to the improvement efforts of "Uncle George" – as he had come to be known. As he usually did, Watkins addressed the BLYC membership at their annual "Tar Social" in the winter of 1908. He talked "interestingly and entertainingly" about the Lake and its improvements, accomplished and contemplated. He reported that boat registrations at the lake that year had resulted in revenue of over $6000 – quite a lot in those days – which would be used for maintenance and improvements in the coming year. At the conclusion of his talk, the members, overjoyed with his report, called a spontaneous, resounding, unanimous vote declaring that the Club's once-watery real estate of Sunken Island should be renamed "WATKINS ISLAND."

In 1910, Watkins was again a candidate for the Republican Party's nomination for re-election to the state's Board of Public Works. In their appreciation for all he had done for Buckeye Lake and the Club, a sizeable delegation of BLYC members assembled at the Statehouse on July 26 to rally for "Uncle George."

Exhibiting their colors and sentiments, these BLYC mariners marched out across the capitol's west concourse to their chant of "We-Want-Uncle-George-We-Want-Uncle-George..." Crossing High Street, the procession halted traffic... In the old Neil House, these boosters for Uncle George passed out cards... and pinned Watkins badges on delegates and visitors alike. No-one there convened, was left unapprised of Watkins' candidacy and qualifications... Needless to say, Uncle George was nominated and, ultimately, re-elected that fall.

Such was the admiration and appreciation BLYC had for George Watkins. Over a period of a few short years, George Watkins had transformed a dilapidated, murky, muddy, barely-navigable canal reservoir into a vibrant, active lake community. Unfortunately though, his leadership was not to continue.

On February 3, 1911, BLYC held its sixth "Tar Social." Noticeably absent however – for the first time – was "Uncle George." Just 5 days previous, he suffered a stroke at his home in Portsmouth. He passed away on February 8, 1911 leaving a legacy of improvements that made our Lake and our Club possible – Improvements which we still enjoy today.

On Friday, July 3, 1925, a group of Mr. Watkins' friends, along with yacht club members, dedicated our island to his lasting memory with the "imperishable bronze tablet" that now hangs in the dining room:

"George H. Watkins – member and lover of the Club, friend of the common people, (who) departing, left to them in Buckeye Lake a beautiful and valuable heritage to which his spirit invites us to return again and again to enjoy the fruits of his labors."
